U.S. Forces Pursue Reds In Base Area

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. infantrymen today pursued North Vietnamese troops that tried to overrun three American bases near Da Nang, and the Communist death toll in South Vietnam's five northern provinces climbed to at least 400 since the New Year's truce ended Tuesday.

The North Vietnamese kept up heavy machine gun fire at American helicopters moving troops and supplies into the Que Son Valley south of Da Nang. One helicopter was shot down today, making a total of five downed in two days. The crew was rescued, and U.S. fighter-bombers tried to knock out the enemy guns.

Brig. Gen. Charles Ryder, assistant commander of the Americal Division, said his troops killed "about 300" enemy troops, including 241 in attempts to seize Landing Zones Ross and Leslie in the valley about 25 miles southwest of Da Nang. The other attack Wednesday was against nearby Landing Zone West.

Ryder said he believes the North Vietnamese "may be regrouping and I fully expect them to continue the attack."

Two of his companies patrolling were attacked early today, but reports of the action were sketchy.

Two of the Que Son Valley bases came under sporadic mortar attack during the night, and the Americans fired thousands of mortar and artillery rounds.

Delayed reports from other parts of the 1st Corps area—the five northernmost provinces—listed 111 Communists killed.

A platoon of U.S. soldiers bolstered by a squad of Marines said about 25 Viet Cong riflemen opened up on them Wednesday about 20 miles south of the Que Son Valley. The Americans said after beating back the initial attack, they surrounded a nearby Communist fortified village and attacked it, killing 51 enemy soldiers. They reported no American casualties.

A South Vietnamese outpost in western Quang Tin Province lost contact with government headquarters for nearly a day, then reported today its forces killed at least 60 North Vietnamese regulars in a series of attacks Tuesday by two North Vietnamese battalions. U.S. helicopters helped with flare illumination and automatic weapons fire.

'Not Active Candidate'

Rhodes OKs Role As Favorite Son

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes said today he will accept the role of favorite son presidential candidate of the Ohio delegation to this year's Republican National Convention.

However, in the statement issued by his office, Rhodes added, "I am not an active candidate for any national office."

"I expect to fulfill my contract with the people of Ohio. God willing, I will serve until the expiration of that term in January, 1971," he said.

Rhodes' announcement was expected. He went to the 1964 convention as Ohio's favorite son candidate, but released the delegates before the first ballot, and all but one vote went to winner Barry M. Goldwater.

No other Republicans are expected to oppose Rhodes in the state's presidential primary May 7. Ohio will have a 58-member delegation to the convention.

Taft Decision Hints At '70 Governor Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Republicans say the decision by Rep. Robert A. Taft Jr. not to seek Sen. Frank J. Lausche's Senate seat could mean Taft will run for Ohio's governorship in 1970.

Republican Taft's announcement that he won't seek the GOP nomination to oppose Lausche obviously took a load off the mind of the Ohio Democrat, who probably will face a stiff fight in his own party's primary May 7.

"I presume that Taft's decision was made after a careful survey of the situation in Ohio," Lausche said in an interview Wednesday. "I am gratified that he decided not to run."

Lausche said he does not expect Gov. James A. Rhodes to become a candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination. He added he has no idea about the likely GOP nominee.

Some Republican leaders had hoped to interest Rhodes in running for the Senate this year but the governor is reported to have firmly rejected that idea.

Rhodes is serving his final four-year term as state executive and the thinking is he prefers to take on Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, two years from now.

Taft's decision not to contest Lausche or any other Democratic nominee this year could leave him the choice in 1970 of bucking Rhodes, an acknowledged statewide vote getter, for the GOP senatorial nomination or seeking some other office.

Taft could run for re-election to the House then, as he plans to do this year. But those who know him well say his ambition is to follow his late father to the Senate.

They say this could involve a detour, with Taft seeking the governorship in 1970 as a possible prelude to a later senatorial race.

Heart Patient Reported 'Entirely Satisfactory'

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) —Dr. Philip Blaiberg was reported in "entirely satisfactory" condition today, 48 hours after he received a heart transplant.

His attorneys announced the retired dentist and his wife will not keep for personal use the money they are due to receive under a contract for television rights they signed last week. The contract was disclosed Wednesday night when the National Broadcasting Co. of New York sought to protect it.

The contract was for $50,000, but half this sum apparently fell by the wayside when pictures of the operation were forbidden.

"The money accruing to Dr. and Mrs. Blaiberg will not be for their personal use," said a statement by their attorneys. "The entire amount will be donated to organizations and individuals conected with the heart transplant operation on Dr. Blaiberg."

The lawyers said the Blaibergs had avoided pubilcity until they were approached by NBC for exclusive rights set out in the contract. They added the Blaibergs contracted on the basis that the entire income would be paid to the Groote Schuur Hospital or to the recently established Chris Barbard Fund for heart research or the estate of the heart doner Clive Haupt.

Dr. Blaiberg received Tuesday the heart of Haupt, a young factory worker felled by a stroke. Groote Schuur Hospital said today the dentist is fully

Bowles Set In Cambodia Envoy Role

Issue In Talks To Be Use Of Country As Red Sanctuary

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson announced today he is sending Ambassador Chester Bowles to confer with Prince Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia on the question of use by Communist Vietnamese of his country as a sanctuary.

The Texas White House issued this one paragraph statement:

"The United States government is sending a representative to Cambodia in response to the indication given by His Highness Prince Norodom Sihanouk, chief of state of Cambodia, that he would agree to receive an emissary of President Johnson. Ambassador Chester Bowles has been selected for this mission, and the governments of Cambodia and the United States are in agreement that Mr. Bowles should arrive in Phnom Penh within the next few days."

Bowles is U.S. Ambassador to India.

At issue in such talks suggested last week by the Cambodian chief of state is what U.S. officials term the growing use of Cambodia as a sanctuary for North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops battling the United States and her allies in South Vietnam.

Bowles, 66, has previously attempted to restore harmony to U.S. Cambodian relations.

Teachers Set Beaver Vote On Walkouts

Letters were mailed today to all teachers in Beaver County asking them to vote on three proposals — all designed to close down the schools — as the Beaver Coordinating Council of Pennsylvania State Education Association sought ways to have the General Assembly adopt legislation granting salary increases.

The letters were sent by John Steck, Coordinating Council president, to teachers in the 19 districts of the county.

The action came following a meeting Wednesday night at the Courthouse in Beaver. Forty attended.

The letter contains a ballot, which is to be returned by Monday. The teachers will vote on holding a general strike or a professional seminar or submitting mass resignations.

The "seminar" would be called for as many days as necessary to discuss state legislation concerning salary hikes. Officials of the teachers groups said area legislators would be invited to attend.

Committees Discuss 5 Redistricting Bills

CHARLESTON (AP) — Senate and House committees met today to discuss bills proposing to realign West Virginia's five congressional districts and reduce population disparities.

The bills were introduced Wednesday after the legislature convened in special session and heard Gov. Hulett C. Smith call for equitable rearrangement of the state's congressional districts based on the "one man one vote" principle established by the U.S. Supreme Court.

High Laos Officials Adopting 'Wait And See Attitude' On It

VIENT ANE, Laos (AP) — North Vietnam has asked the governments of Laos, Cambodia and Burma if their capitals are available for preliminary Vietnam peace talks, a well informed Laotian source said today.

U.S. Embassy sources admitted they had heard of the reported approach from Hanoi, but they were noncommittal.

High Laotian officials said they did not know how firm Hanoi's intentions were and that the Laotians were adopting a "wait and see attitude."

The Laotian source who reported the North Vietnamese overture said it was made on New Year's Day by Nguyen Chan, the North Vietnamese Charge d'Affaires, who was seen in conversation with Premier Souvanna Phouma at Prince Souvanna's annual New Year's reception.

The premier reportedly agreed that Vientiane could be the site for any talks that might help end the war in Vietnam, but Laotian officials expressed belief that Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital, was a more likely site.

Nguyen Chan is scheduled to fly to Hanoi Friday to report to his government.

Shafer Hits At Amending Pension Bill

To Tell Leaders He Will Sign Fair And Equitable Measure

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Shafer called the floor leaders of the General Assembly out to his Indiantown Gap residence today reportedly to tell them that he cannot permit them to recall the controversial legislative pension bill for amendment.

"The governor wants to tell the leaders that he will sign a fair and equitable pension bill," Jack Conmy, Shafer's public relations secretary said.

"However, he does not feel the bill they sent to him can be recalled," Conmy continued. "The attorney general (William C. Sennett) has informally advised him that this would be unconstitutional. Unless they can convince him otherwise, there seems to be no alternative but to veto the bill."

Called out to the Gap were Senate Majority Leader Stanley G. Stroup, R-Bedford; House Majority Leader Lee A. Donaldson Jr., R-Allegheny; Senate Minority Leader Ernest P. Kline D-Beaver; and House Minority Leader Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia.

Shafer assured the leadership Wednesday he would make his final decision on the pension bill today before departing on a two-week vacation in the Virgin Islands.

His relationship with the 1968 General Assembly, it was said by disgruntled lawmakers, could well depend on the course he selects in resolving the touchy issue.

Britain Gets Chance To Bid

U.S. Holding Up On Arms Buying

WASHINGTON (AP) — It appears the United States has stopped short of any ironclad agreement to buy an additional $100 million in arms and equipment from Britain.

What this country did was give the British a chance to bid for more orders—in competition with U.S. firms seeking the business.

This became evident in the wake of a Defense Department announcement Monday that it had agreed to add $100 million to "the target" of $725 million in purchases from British manufacturers.

Asked what kinds of equipment the British are likely to sell to the United States, and whether there is a prospect for big new arms contracts for British firms, the Pentagon replied:

"While there is no guarantee that the British will obtain the orders, they will be able to bid competitively on such items as ships, electronic equipment, ammunition, communications equipment, aircraft, aircraft engines, tires, etc."

The opportunity to bid competitively can be something less than a blessing, as shown by a recent case involving proposed contruction of nine U.S. Navy minesweepers.

The British defense ministry registered the third lowest of four bids submitted.

When the Navy opened the bids, the British bid of $55 million for the whole package was found to be more than $5 million higher than offers made by two American shipbuilders.

The contract for the minesweepers has not yet been awarded. Whether or not Britain will be selected to build the vessels, even though it did not submit the low bid, remains an open question.

The U.S. agreement tentatively earmarking $825 million in arms purchases from Britain is in the nature of an offset for $2.88 billion in U.S.-made arms, aircraft and other military equipment purchased by Britain.

The U.S. increase of $100 million, it was explained, was designed to keep pace proportionately with a $375 million increase in the British outlay.

For this reason, Pentagon officials said, the move is not in conflict with President John-

Woman Held For Shooting Her Husband

Joseph Reese, 37, Wounded In Arm In Domestic Rift

LISBON — Mrs. Dolores M. Reese, 37, of the Bell School Rd., East Liverpool RD 1, is in the County Jail here awaiting arraignment on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Her husband, Joseph (Jack) Reese, 37, filed the complaint Wednesday evening in Southwest Court here after being shot in the right upper arm.

Mrs. Reese, the mother of three children, was jailed in lieu of $2,500. She will be taken before Judge D. Barry Dickson in Eastern Court, East Palestine.

Law enforcement authorities said the Reeses have a history of domestic disturbances and have a divorce action pending. They were married in 1959. He sued her last Nov. 9, charging gross neglect and extreme cruelty, and she filed a cross-petition Nov. 30 charging extreme cruelty.

Buzzard Bids For His Third 6-Year Term

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Columbiana County Common Pleas Court will be a candidate for a third six - year term.

The former East Liverpool attorney Tuesday began his 12th year on the bench. He was elected first in November 1956 and again in November 1962.

A native of East Liverpool, he served as city solicitor during the 1930's when the present City Hall was built. He was a member of the board of education when bond issues were passed for the construction of East Junior and Westgate schools. He was board president eight of the 12 years he served.

Judge Buzzard is an elder in the Grace United Presbyterian Church. He at one time played semi-pro baseball. He and his wife, the former Hilma Johnson of East Liverpool, reside at 2759 St. Clair Ave. They have a son David, who was graduated from Western Reserve University Law School a year ago and is working as assistant to the dean at Reserve while preparing for the Ohio bar examinations next spring.

The former East Liverpool attorney Tuesday began his 12th year on the bench. He was elected first in November 1956 and again in November 1962.

A native of East Liverpool, he served as city solicitor during the 1930's when the present City Hall was built. He was a member of the board of education when bond issues were passed for the construction of East Junior and Westgate schools. He was board president eight of the 12 years he served.

Judge Buzzard is an elder in the Grace United Presbyterian Church. He at one time played semi-pro baseball. He and his wife, the former Hilma Johnson of East Liverpool, reside at 2759 St. Clair Ave. They have a son David, who was graduated from Western Reserve University Law School a year ago and is working as assistant to the dean at Reserve while preparing for the Ohio bar examinations next spring.

One Of Australia's Quints, A Boy, Dies

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — One of Australias Braham quintuplets born last Sunday, a boy, died Thursday.

Geoffrey Roger, the last of the five babies born to 36-year-old Mrs. Patricia Braham, became ill during the morning and died in midafternoon, the attending obstetrician announced.

A hospital bulletin this morning had reported all five babies in satisfactory condition. The others are another boy, Richard Gibson, and three girls, Annabel Dorothy, Faith Elizabeth and Caroline Jean.

Detour Plans Set For Grading In Beacon Hill Job

A detour has been set up for through traffic on U.S. Route 30 between Hanoverton and Lisbon to allow the contractor for the Route 30 improvement at Beacon Hill to complete grading operations.

Division 11 Deputy Director Levi Kimball said that the detour will be put in effect as soon as the weather moderates enough to allow grading.

It will carry through traffic over S.R. 9 from Hanoverton to its junction with State Route 172 at New Garden; then over S.R. 172 to U.S. 30 west of Lisbon.

The 0.8 mile construction project is being carried out by the M. B. Guran Co. of Akron and the closing will be of a temporary nature until grading can be done for installation of drainage pipes across the existing route.

Signs will be posted and notice given as soon as the detour is put in effect.

Mayor Rhodes Fills Council Committee Posts In Rogers

ROGERS — Committee appointments were announced by Mayor Glenn Rhodes at a meeting of Council Wednesday night at the fire station.

Named were: Finance — Glenn Baker, chairman, Kenneth Mackall and Earl DeVann, and street — Earl Cusick, chairman, and Howard Baker Jr. and Donald Hayes.

Reappointed were Donald Elliott, solicitor; Thurman Mercer, street commissioner, and chief of police and marshal, Sidney Cowan Sr.

Glenn Baker was returned as president of Council.

Temporary appropriations totaling $2,456 were adopted for the first three months of the year.

Newly - elected Councilmen who began duties last night will receive $7 a meeting under an ordinance adopted last July. Councilmen whose terms have not expired will continue to get the previous pay of $3 a meeting.

Mayor Rhodes expressed appreciation to Council for their work during the last two years, and welcomed the new Councilmen.

Early Measures Are Advised To Protect Alfalfa

SALEM — A state entomologist told farmers attending the Columbiana - Mahoning Soils and Crops Institute here Wednesday that they must check constantly in season to protect alfalfa from weevils and leafhoppers.

B. D. Blair of the extension department at Ohio State University said he finds that farmers are waiting too long to apply control measures. He recommended that they get into the fields early and frequently and use a butterfly net device to check on weevil and leafhopper populations.

Approximately 110 attended the annual meeting at the Christian Church on E. State St.

Other state speakers were Dr. Merle Niehaus, agronomist at the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center, Wooster, and Melville Palmer, extension agricultural engineer at OSU.

Paul Gipp and William B. Phillips, extension agents for agriculture in Columbiana and Mahoning counties respectively, discussed changes in the Ohio soil-testing program.

Driver Veers—Crash! As Soda Lands In Lap

A container full of soda pop and chipped ice that spilled into a woman driver's lap was blamed for a collision Wednesday that damaged two cars on Jefferson St. near W. 4th St., police reported.

Mrs. Mabel Gibson of 1113 Center St., Wellsville, told police she was driving west on W. 4th and turning onto Jefferson St. when the container full of soda which her daughter had purchased a few moments before spilled off the dashboard and landed in her lap.

As a result, Mrs. Gibson said, her 1965 two-door sedan collided with a parked 1960 two-door sedan owned by April Beadnell of 207 10th St., Wellsville. The crash damaged the right front fender of the Gibson car and the left door of the Beadnell auto.

Israel's Chief To Ask LBJ For U.S. Arms

City's No. 1 Priority

Mayor George Willshaw has properly placed the hiring of a fulltime planning director and advancement of plans for extension of the Freeway to the East End at the top of the city's 1968 objectives.

Selection of a capable and energetic director to coordinate planning and development programs within the city and with federal and state agencies is no doubt the number one priority.

Such an official will be needed to help implement the comprehensive plan when it is completed this year. He will be needed to take advantage of the many urban programs which are available. He will be needed to assist in preparation for the proposed Freeway project, to assist in housing, recreation, transportation, sanitation, innumerable programs. He will be needed to work with the county government and planners. He will be needed for aid and guidance in industrial development.

Most of the city's Councilmen have indicated a growing interest in creating the post and filling it. We hope they will be able to act within a short time. The benefits which should accrue from employing a competent director far exceed the funds which would be invested in his salary and expenses.

Are We Learning Anything?

Misunderstanding of Social Security benefits by the aged has done great harm in the popular mind. To this day, many citizens have not comprehended the difference between a life insurance annuity and old-age benefits. Social Security has been misrepresented to them, sometimes maliciously, as a system of investing their money to yield a schedule of benefits when they reach a certain age.

Social Security is a system of collecting taxes from workers during their earning years, on assurance that certain benefits will accrue to them in retirement. Unfortunately, the operation of the system never was clearly explained to the millions who would be affected by it.

Did anyone realize when Aid for Dependent Children was set up as a federal program that it would be, in effect, a subsidy to illegitimacy? Or was this an unforeseen consequence of a good intention gone wrong?

Did the War College ever go into a deep study of the probability of being bogged down in a land war in Southeast Asia? Or did someone make a decision to contain Communism without consulting the people who would be responsible for doing it?

Did anyone ever think about the consequences of selling autos that could go more than 100 m.p.h. to drivers who would be a menace at half that speed?

Have educational theorists in this Republic ever thought seriously about the distinction between education and training — and who gave permission to certify trainees as educatees?

Why should the government be scrambling in 1968 to undo the effect of two world wars and half a generation of economic and political intervention — locking the door on the dollar after the dollars have been spent abroad?

Who thought up all the tax and zoning laws that created and now perpetuate slums?

Are we learning anything from our mistakes? Or must we keep on making more, jumping from frying pans into fires as if we still didn't know the fire was hot?

Medical Missionary

It seems strange that a medical breakthrough so remarkable as a human heart transplant should have been made in South Africa.

In Vienna, maybe. In one of America's chrome-plated medical centers, maybe. Maybe in London, or Paris, or Moscow. But the Dark Continent! Amazing!

We in the West, who gave the world everything from tranquilizers to space conquest, sometimes think we have a lock on scientific achievement. Then a guy like Dr. Christian N. Barnard comes along and knocks us on our collective ear.

And all this when many of us believed that Africa was still dependent on medical missionaries to cure its aches and pains.

Help For An American Amigo

Costa Rica, that "tiny little model of representative democracy", is in trouble—financially. There are those who fear the country may spend itself into bankruptcy.

The small Central American nation has earned for itself the reputation of being the most modern and progressive country in Central America. It emulates and has great admiration for America and things American.

John F. Kennedy, before, after and during his visit there, was idolized to an unbelievable extent. Today, a Kennedy half-dollar is cherished far beyond its monetary value by Costa Ricans.

The country is striving to improve itself educationally and medically and having considerable success. Its literacy rate of 80 per cent is among the highest in Latin America.

But heavy buying after the damaging volcanic eruptions in 1963-64 helped to create the currently fragile economic condition existing in the nation.

Costa Rica, good friend of America needs help.

President Johnson is asking Americans to travel only in this hemisphere, if possible, as a method of slowing down the dollar drain. Tiny Costa Rica could well benefit from American tourist dollars, and Americans would find the little banana republic a scenically beautiful and interesting vacationland.

Diversions of American tourists from Europe and the Orient to Central and South America could be just what the doctor ordered for the United States' ailing little amigo.

Talk About A Credibility Gap

Arthur M. Okun, formerly of Yale University, now the chief economic adviser to President Johnson, believes in the new economics. Gardner Ackley, the man he will replace as head of the Council of Economic Advisers, believed in the new economics, too.

The new economics . . .

Ask the next 10 Americans you meet what the phrase means, and you will get 10 different answers. All of them will be wrong.

The new economics is a point of view held steadfastly by a coterie of academicians with a scattered following of businessmen and political leaders.

This point of view is totally incomprehensible to believers in the old economics. They not only mistrust the new economics but the people who advocate it.

They reject out of hand the idea that anything new ever can happen in economics. Economic doctrine, in their view, began and ended with Adam Smith in the 18th century. They regard government as a trespasser in the sacred province of private enterprise, where the new economics regards government as the key to economic activity.

The new economics reached the United States via the thinking of John Maynard Keynes when the Roosevelt New Deal was still a novelty. It has permeated the policy of the federal government ever since, always against the implacable opposition of believers in the old economics.

These believers cannot believe it is here to stay, despite the fact it has been here for the greater part of a generation and now is inextricably integrated with national and international affairs.

There is, in fact, no wider credibility gap anywhere than the one between the old and new schools of economics.

Odd Facts

The distinction between an "introvert" and an "extrovert" lies in the fact that the former is preoccupied with his own mental processes and attitudes, and with the way he is regarded by others — while an extrovert is one who is interested in things and people outside of himself.

Approximately 1,000 yards of ordinary calico or gingham can be woven out of a 500-pound bale of cotton.

'Lover, Come Back To Me!'

A New Approach

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON

My friend Zimmerman is a wise man, and when he speaks I listen. The other day Zimmerman said the United States was approaching the DeGaulle problem from the wrong direction.

Art Buchwald

"What exactly do you mean by that?" I asked him.

"Well, every time DeGaulle makes a statement or holds a press conference, we immediately react in rage and disbelief."

"As well we might," I said.

"But this is exactly what De Gaulle wants everybody to do. He gets his kicks out of getting everybody mad at him. The madder we get, the better he likes it. Don't you understand? De Gaulle is devoting his last years to bugging everyone, and the more we show how upset we are, the happier we make him."

"That I can believe," I said. "But what is the solution, Zimmerman?"

"We must not show that De Gaulle is getting under our skin. We must make believe that everything he advocates makes sense and is in our interests as well as his."

"But how?"

"LET US SUPPOSE at his press conference De Gaulle says that Quebec should be free, and no longer a part of Canada. The United States should immediately announce that this is not only a brilliant idea, but our military future depends on an autonomous Quebec. As soon as De Gaulle hears our reaction he will drop his Free Quebec campaign and announce that Quebec must never be separated from the Canadian Federation."

"I could see him doing it," I said.

Zimmerman continued. "Now let us take the Common Market problem. We know De Gaulle is against Great Britain becoming a member because he thinks we want the British in.

"The thing we must do is send word to De Gaulle, through a neutral power, that the greatest fear of the United States is that France will permit the British to become part of the European community. We should urge De Gaulle at all costs to use his good offices to keep out the British. We might even send over Vice President Humphrey to plead with him to make it impossible for the British ever to join."

"When De Gaulle hears this he will immediately make the British a partner behind our backs!" I said excitedly.

"YOU CATCH ON fast," Zimmerman said. "At the moment, De Gaulle is making an attack on the dollar, forcing us to use up our gold reserves. Suppose we passed the word to Swiss bankers that the United States is short of dollars and we're pretending we have a gold shortage so France will sell us her dollars."

"De Gaulle will be furious and use his gold to start buying back American dollars!" I cried.

"Exactly. Now we come to NATO. At the secretary of defense's next press conference, he should say that the Joint Chiefs of Staff have concluded that France has no strategic value in the defense of Europe, and it is to our advantage, militarily and economically, that she no longer be part of NATO."

"I'd like to see De Gaulle's face when he reads that."

"Our policy should be that no matter what De Gaulle says, we must never let on that we've lost our cool. We should praise him as a superb statesman, a magnificent soldier and the greatest leader of our times."

"In other words, kill him with kindness," I said.

"Yes. I honestly believe that if we kept up this approach for a year, De Gaulle would lose interest in his role in the world, and fade away."

"It's a cruel thing we're plotting, Zimmerman, but I think it's worth a try."

Romania Relishes Freedom

No Concessions Made To Moscow

Nicolae Ceausescu, Romanian president and general secretary of the Communist party, is apparently making no concessions to the Soviet Union.

Two days of intensive talks in Moscow between Ceausescu and Soviet leaders produced a communique on Dec. 15 that was a vague, chilly dud.

If the friendship treaty between the two countries is to be renewed, details will probably go over to talks in Bucharest next year.

For Ceausescu, familiarity does not necessarily translate as friendship. He is no stranger to the Russians. He attended the party congresses in Moscow in 1957, 1959, and 1961. He accompanied the late Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej during a long trip to the Soviet Union in 1961.

But since Ceausescu took over as party leader in March 1965, Romania increasingly has become identified as the maverick in the Soviet bloc. The atmosphere in Bucharest next year is likely to be just as chill as it was in Moscow.

Romania marches to the different drum in part because it is doing very well. With its considerable natural wealth in oil and agricluture, Romania has recorded one of the highest post-war growth rates in Europe.

It has switched gradually from a basically agrarian to an industrial economy.

However, about 11.8 million of Romania's 19.1 million population still live in rural areas.

Romania is the latest of the Soviet satellites to join the march toward economic reform. Basically the movement is in the direction of a market-type economy. Key reforms were adopted at a plenum of the Central Committee, Oct. 5.

The directives were camouflaged. Scinteia (Spark) reported: "The party's leading role in economic activity, in social life as a whole, is increasing even more in the present state of the process of completing Socialist construction."

Romania declined to attend a session in Warsaw last February planning a European Communist party unity meeting. Its representatives also boycotted the main event in Karlov Vary, Czechoslovakia, in April.

Ceausescu has been bitter about a slow-down in trade relations between Romania and the Soviet Union. Russia is said to be throttling iron ore deliveries to the Romanian steel plant at Galati in an effort to bring its unruly statellite to heel.

Ceausescu on Dec. 6 said that "differences of opinion" over international and party affairs should not be an excuse for "influencing economic relations."The party leader said Romania "will not tolerate such violations." Romania recently displeased the Russians by establishing relations with West Germany. It is reported turning to Western Europe and Japan for raw materials.

Ceausescu also has maintained neutrality in the Soviet Union's dispute with Communist China. And Romania maintains trade relations with Israel, with which Russia and its allies broke in June.

East Europe comments: "Romania's current refusal to follow the Soviet line. . .in such matters as the Arab-Israeli war or recognition of West Germany has probably bolstered (Ceausescu's) image and won the party some support among the people."

China Vs. China?

A new crisis is shaping up in Southeast Asia. The North Vietnamese are building up their strength for a major offensive in the latter part of January in connection with the projected truce for the Lunar New Year holidays.

Coincidentally, there is an apparent increase in the intensive operations of North Vietnamese forces in Laos. Likewise, Cambodia is apprehensive that South Vietnamese and American forces will engage in "hot pursuit" of Communists across its borders and fighting will spread to Cambodian territory.

Behind all this are the Soviet Union and Red China. Though their methods are different, their objectives are the same.

Red China is doing its upmost to bring about a North Vietnamese victory. If war operations in Laos and Cambodia are made a part of the big offensive against South Vietnam, the United States will be confronted with a decision of major importance — whether to add to its allies in Vietnam perhaps 500,000 Nationalist Chinese.

THE U. S. DEPARTMENT of State has made no mention of this possibility. It has said, however, that it is deeply concerned with the "sanctuaries" in Cambodia and Laos being used by the Communists in stepped-up operations.

No impending action has been revealed, but it is logical to consider the use of the Nationalist Chinese.

This would open up inside China some significant developments.

The Red Chinese are having plenty of internal trouble, and they would not be happy to see a substantial army of Nationalist Chinese moving into Southeast Asia.

But with Red China encouraging surprise raids in Southern Laos and with Cambodia worried about becoming engulfed in the conflict and growing more friendly toward the United States, serious thought will have to be given by Peking to the choice between involvement in a major war and helping to bring about some kind of peace settlement in Vietnam.

Already, North Viet Nam has joined with Red China to promise "firm support" for Cambodia, and there have been hints that Communist Chinese troops might go into that country if Americans crossed the border. Peking is claiming that Communist insurgents inside Laos are gaining ground.

Both Laos and Cambodia are under the protection of the Southeast Asia Treaty, which the United States signed during the Eisenhower administration.

If Communist military activities are to expand now in Laos and Cambodia, it is natural for the United States to seek allies to help repel such aggression.

Administration sources are saying the Joint Chiefs of Staff have not recommended a widening of the war to Cambodia, but there has been a lot of talk about "hot pursuit" of Communist forces attacking across its borders, and the importance of bombing supply lines which lead into South Vietnam through Laos and Cambodia.

Efforts are being made at this time through the channels of diplomacy to bring about some kind of understanding that will keep the Vietnam War from being enlarged.

But success depends upon what potential forces the United States has available to discourage a military offensive by the Communists. The trump card would seem to be the use of the Nationalist Chinese.

The mere presence of such forces on the Asia mainland would cause deep concern to the Peking regime, already faced with serious dissension.

There is a feeling here at home that some important developments are in the offing, but it is impossible to predict to what extent they will enlarge or shorten the Vietnam war.

It might be decisive if the United States made clear that it is prepared to use the Nationalist Chinese unless the new Communist activity in Cambodia and Laos is terminated and something concrete is done to bring the Vietnam issue to the conference table.

City's No. 1 Priority

Mayor George Willshaw has properly placed the hiring of a fulltime planning director and advancement of plans for extension of the Freeway to the East End at the top of the city's 1968 objectives.

Selection of a capable and energetic director to coordinate planning and development programs within the city and with federal and state agencies is no doubt the number one priority.

Such an official will be needed to help implement the comprehensive plan when it is completed this year. He will be needed to take advantage of the many urban programs which are available. He will be needed to assist in preparation for the proposed Freeway project, to assist in housing, recreation, transportation, sanitation, innumerable programs. He will be needed to work with the county government and planners. He will be needed for aid and guidance in industrial development.

Most of the city's Councilmen have indicated a growing interest in creating the post and filling it. We hope they will be able to act within a short time. The benefits which should accrue from employing a competent director far exceed the funds which would be invested in his salary and expenses.

Are We Learning Anything?

Misunderstanding of Social Security benefits to the aged has done great harm in the popular mind. To this day, many citizens have not comprehended the difference between a life insurance annuity and old-age benefits. Social Security has been misrepresented to them, sometimes maliciously, as a system of investing their money to yield a schedule of benefits when they reach a certain age.

Social Security is a system of collecting taxes from workers during their earning years, on assurance that certain benefits will accrue to them in retirement. Unfortunately, the operation of the system never was clearly explained to the millions who would be affected by it.

Did anyone realize when Aid for Dependent Children was set up as a federal program that it would be, in effect, a subsidy to illegitimacy? Or was this an unforeseen consequence of a good intention gone wrong?

Did the War College ever go into a deep study of the probability of being bogged down in a land war in Southeast Asia? Or did someone make a decision to contain Communism without consulting the people who would be responsible for doing it?

Did anyone ever think about the consequences of selling autos that could go more than 100 m.p.h. to drivers who would be a menace at half that speed?

Have educational theorists in this Republic ever thought seriously about the distinction between education and training — and who gave permission to certify trainees as educatees?

Why should the government be scrambling in 1968 to undo the effect of two world wars and half a generation of economic and political intervention — locking the door on the dollar after the dollars have been spent abroad?

Who thought up all the tax and zoning laws that created and now perpetuate slums?

Are we learning anything from our mistakes? Or must we keep on making more, jumping from frying pans into fires as if we still didn't know the fire was hot?

Medical Missionary

It seems strange that a medical breakthrough so remarkable as a human heart transplant should have been made in South Africa.

In Vienna, maybe. In one of America's chrome-plated medical centers, maybe. Maybe in London, or Paris, or Moscow. But the Dark Continent! Amazing!

We in the West, who gave the world everything from tranquilizers to space conquest, sometimes think we have a lock on scientific achievement. Then a guy like Dr. Christian N. Barnard comes along and knocks us on our collective ear.

And all this when many of us believed that Africa was still dependent on medical missionaries to cure its aches and pains.

Help For An American Amigo

Costa Rica, that "tiny little model of representative democracy", is in trouble—financially. There are those who fear the country may spend itself into bankruptcy.

The small Central American nation has earned for itself the reputation of being the most modern and progressive country in Central America. It emulates and has great admiration for America and things American.

John F. Kennedy, before, after and during his visit there, was idolized to an unbelievable extent. Today, a Kennedy half-dollar is cherished far beyond its monetary value by Costa Ricans.

The country is striving to improve itself educationally and medically and having considerable success. Its literacy rate of 80 per cent is among the highest in Latin America.

But heavy buying after the damaging volcanic eruptions in 1963-64 helped to create the currently fragile economic condition existing in the nation.

Costa Rica, good friend of America needs help.

President Johnson is asking Americans to travel only in this hemisphere, if possible, as a method of slowing down the dollar drain. Tiny Costa Rica could well benefit from American tourist dollars, and Americans would find the little banana republic a scenically beautiful and interesting vacationland.

Diversions of American tourists from Europe and the Orient to Central and South America could be just what the doctor ordered for the United States' ailing little amigo.

Talk About A Credibility Gap

Arthur M. Okun, formerly of Yale University, now the chief economic adviser to President Johnson, believes in the new economics. Gardner Ackley, the man he will replace as head of the Council of Economic Advisers, believed in the new economics, too.

The new economics . . .

Ask the next 10 Americans you meet what the phrase means, and you will get 10 different answers. All of them will be wrong.

The new economics is a point of view held steadfastly by a coterie of academicians with a scattered following of businessmen and political leaders.

This point of view is totally incomprehensible to believers in the old economics. They not only mistrust the new economics but the people who advocate it.

They reject out of hand the idea that anything new ever can happen in economics. Economic doctrine, in their view, began and ended with Adam Smith in the 18th century. They regard government as a trespasser in the sacred province of private enterprise, where the new economics regards government as the key to economic activity.

The new economics reached the United States via the thinking of John Maynard Keynes when the Roosevelt New Deal was still a novelty. It has permeated the policy of the federal government ever since, always against the implacable opposition of believers in the old economics.

These believers cannot believe it is here to stay, despite the fact it has been here for the greater part of a generation and now is inextricably integrated with national and international affairs.

There is, in fact, no wider credibility gap anywhere than the one between the old and new schools of economics.

Put Aside By House Committee

Study Of Ohio Tax Laws Seen Dead Issue In '68

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A widely heralded study of Ohio tax laws aimed at giving more relief to property owners and otherwise distributing the tax burden more equitably apparently is a dead issue for this year.

Administration and legislative leaders say the study by a select House committee has been all but put aside in the wake of the legislature's congressional redistricting problem and other programs being pushed by the administration.

John M. McElroy, the governor's administrative assistant, said Wednesday, "From what I hear it is a dead issue, at least for this year."

McElroy said the apparent reason is that 1968 is an election year and that "the voters often are confused about taxes."

House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess named the select committee last year in the midst of deliberations over a series of tax bills which eventually became law.

One of the main recommendations of the Ohio Tax Study Commission which reported last summer after two years of work was revisions giving relief of property owners. The commission said they bear a greater share of taxes in Ohio than in most comparable states.

McElroy said the administration will push for approval of a congressional redistricting bill and Gov. James A. Rhodes' two latest bond issue proposals as top priority items in the legislature.

Kurfess planned to meet with his committee chairmen at 10 a.m. today to discuss about 80 bills left pending from the session which adjourned last August. The speaker said they probably will select about a score of measures for the sessions leaders insist can be finished in about one month.

Democratic legislative leaders will meet here Friday to discuss the proposed bond issues and other matters.

Administration officials meanwhile, indicated they will do all they can to keep most of several pending constitutional resolutions off the May ballot for fear of jeopardizing Rhodes' $700 million highway bond issue and another proposal of $265 million for capital improvements are slated for the May ballot.

They insisted however, that there would be no objection to one or possibly two accompanying the bond issues. No objection would be voiced to May balloting on a proposal to permit filling of House vacancies by appointment by parties in which a vacancy occurs.

Senate vacancies now are filled in that manner but the constitution requires vacancies in the lower chamber to be filled by special election.

Among the score of bills expected to get "serious consideration" at the session are proposals to improve water management and curb pollution, boost retirement benefits of teachers and public employes, require school boards to negotiate with majority teacher organizations, and reactivate the Ohio Building Authority to build a new state office building.

State Sen. David S. Holcomb R-6 Dayton said Wednesday he wants to introduce a bill permitting recogntion of public employe unions but retaining the present prohibition of public employe strikes.

First law passed recognizing that the state is responsible for its dependent people was in 1601, when, during the reign of Queen Elizabeth I, poor relief laws were financed by taxing each parish. Prior to this, the church was the main agency for poor relief.

Planning Commission Slates Hearing Feb. 5

The City Planning Commission announced today it has scheduled a public hearing Feb. 5 at 8 p. m. in the Council chamber at City Hall on a long-pending application to change the zoning classification of a small tract of property fronting on Pennsylvania Ave., East End.

The property involved is bounded by Long Alley, Pennsylvania Ave., Virginia Ave. and the east line of Lot 1772. It is known as Lots 1772, 1773 and 1774 in the David Boyce "Jamesville Addition."

The application seeks to change the classification from residential use to commercial use. A service station is scheduled for erection on the site if the application is approved.

conscious and in good spirits, but has had no solid foods yet.

Dr. Jacobus Burger, medical superintendent of the hospital, said the chances were "very remote" that the 58-year-old patient's body would reject the heart.

Blaiberg is expected to remain in an oxygen tent for another three or four days. He was under constant observation, with checks being made on his pulse rate and blood pressure at least every half hour. His blood gases are analyzed twice daily, and the chemical content of the blood is tested every four hours.

The hospital spokesman said to guard against infection and too much emotion, Blaiberg would not be allowed to see his wife for several days.

The spokesman also said that radioactive cobalt treatment to counteract the body's natural tendency to reject a foreign object—the transplanted heart—would begin within a few days.

Dr. Christian Barnard, who headed the surgical team for the transplant on Blaiberg and for medical history's first recorded heart transplant Dec. 3 on Louis Washkansky, had indicated that Blaiberg would be given less antirejection treatment than Washkansky. The treatment was believed a factor conducive to the pneumonia which killed Washkansky 18 days after the operation.

Meanwhile, the National Broadcasting Company went to court in an attempt to block a SouthAfrican photographer who it said threatened to infringe on its contract with Blaiberg and his wife for exclusive photo coverage and interviews before, during and after the operation.

NBC said it contracted with Dr. and Mrs. Blaiberg last Friday to pay them $9,000 for exclusive films and interviews before the operation, $25,000 for "publication of the first exclusive film or pictures of the operation," and $16,000 for exlusive coverage afterward.

Dr. Barnard refused to permit NBC to photograph the operation, and court sources said this apparently would reduce the Blaibergs' take $25,000. But NBC in an affidavit to the Supreme Court said photographer Don McKenzie slipped into the gallery of the operating theater and made photographs of the operation before Dr. M.C. Botha, a member of the surgical team, ejected him.

Justice Basil F.J. Banks issued an order temporarily restraining McKenzie from selling or disposing of photographs relating to the operation. He was ordered to appear for a hearing Jan. 17 to determine whether the restraining order shoud be made permanent.

NBC said McKenzie flew to Johannesburg Wednesday, and the court order was sent after him. The Cape Times said he was a fashion photographer well known in social circles.

partment at the Crucible Steel Co.'s Midland Division. Brown had him get in the cruiser while they waited for Sheriff's Deputy Robert Wellington to arrive. Brown said, "'We were in the cruiser about five minutes before Reese told me he had been shot."

The officers took Reese to East Liverpool City Hospital for treatment. The slug passed through his arm. Brown and Reese talked to Richard Clark of East Liverpool, assistant prosecuting attorney, and Reese signed the complaint.

Constable Brown took possession of the gun — a .22-caliber pistol — at Mrs. Reese's home, and found nine spent shells in an ashtray. He said Reese told him his wife emptied the pistol at him.

Put Aside By House Committee

Study Of Ohio Tax Laws Seen Dead Issue In '68

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A widely heralded study of Ohio tax laws aimed at giving more relief to property owners and otherwise distributing the tax burden more equitably apparently is a dead issue for this year.

Administration and legislative leaders say the study by a select House committee has been all but put aside in the wake of the legislature's congressional redistricting problem and other programs being pushed by the administration.

John M. McElroy, the governor's administrative assistant, said Wednesday, "From what I hear it is a dead issue, at least for this year."

McElroy said the apparent reason is that 1968 is an election year and that "the voters often are confused about taxes."

House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess named the select committee last year in the midst of deliberations over a series of tax bills which eventually became law.

One of the main recommendations of the Ohio Tax Study Commission which reported last summer after two years of work was revisions giving relief of property owners. The commission said they bear a greater share of taxes in Ohio than in most comparable states.

McElroy said the administration will push for approval of a congressional redistricting bill and Gov. James A. Rhodes' two latest bond issue proposals as top priority items in the legislature.

Kurfess planned to meet with his committee chairmen at 10 a.m. today to discuss about 80 bills left pending from the session which adjourned last August. The speaker said they probably will select about a score of measures for the sessions leaders insist can be finished in about one month.

Democratic legislative leaders will meet here Friday to discuss the proposed bond issues and other matters.

Administration officials meanwhile, indicated they will do all they can to keep most of several pending constitutional resolutions off the May ballot for fear of jeopardizing Rhodes' $700 million highway bond issue and another proposal of $265 million for capital improvements are slated for the May ballot.

They insisted however, that there would be no objection to one or possibly two accompanying the bond issues. No objection would be voiced to May balloting on a proposal to permit filling of House vacancies by appointment by parties in which a vacancy occurs.

Senate vacancies now are filled in that manner but the constitution requires vacancies in the lower chamber to be filled by special election.

Among the score of bills expected to get "serious consideration" at the session are proposals to improve water management and curb pollution, boost retirement benefits of teachers and public employes, require school boards to negotiate with majority teacher organizations, and reactivate the Ohio Building Authority to build a new state office building.

State Sen. David S. Holcomb R-6 Dayton said Wednesday he wants to introduce a bill permitting recogntion of public employe unions but retaining the present prohibition of public employe strikes.

First law passed recognizing that the state is responsible for its dependent people was in 1601, when, during the reign of Queen Elizabeth I, poor relief laws were financed by taxing each parish. Prior to this, the church was the main agency for poor relief.

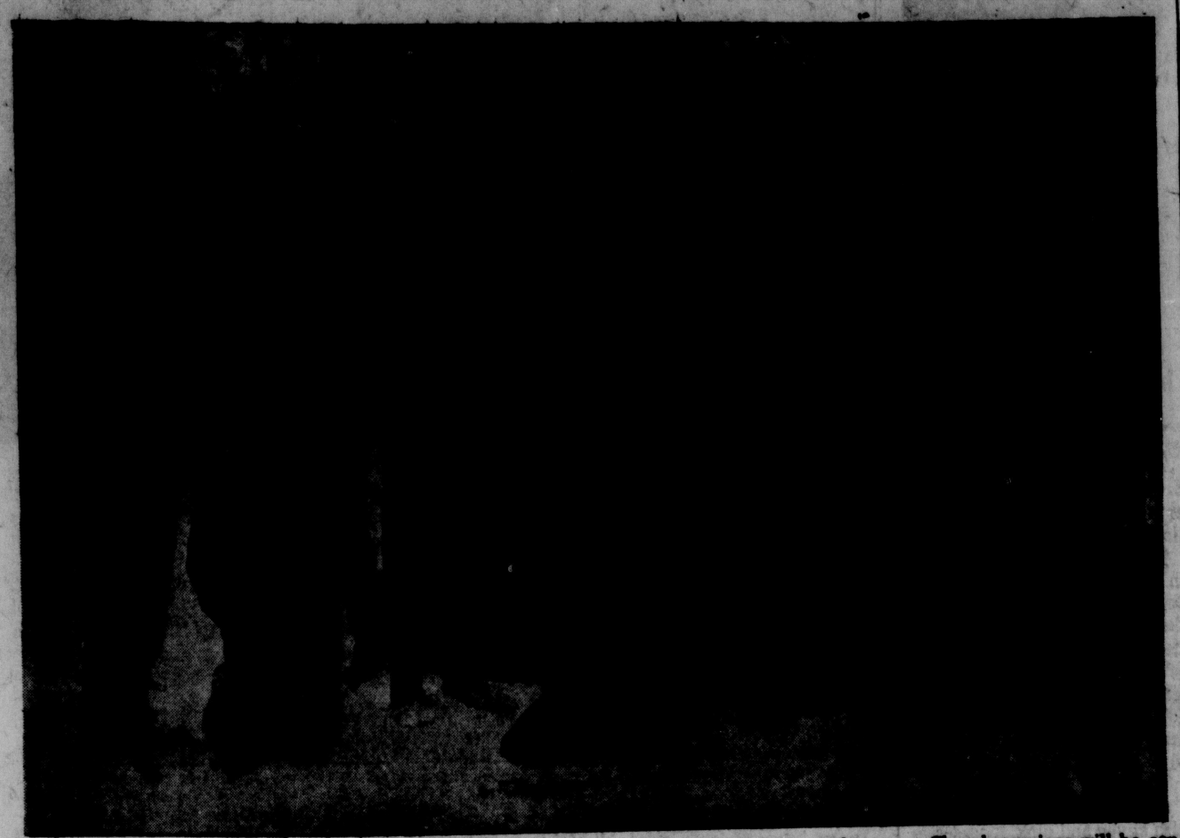
Camporee To Be Held At McKinley

Prepare For Polar Bear Activities



Scouts of Troop 12 are shown preparing for the Cherokee District Polar Bear Camporee to be held Jan. 12-14 at Camp McKinley near Lisbon.

The program for Saturday, Jan. 13, will feature a demonstration and instruction on winter camping and survival conducted by Roger Hobson, a member of the Army Special Service Forces and an expert in the field of winter survival.

Demonstrations also will be given on shooting with a muzzle - loading rifle, on trap-shooting and on shotgun safety by members of the Columbiana County Fish and Game Club.

Church services will be conducted Sunday, Jan. 14, by the Rev. Richard Wallarab of the Trinity Presbyterian Church of East Liverpool.

Visitors are welcome to the camp at any time during the day session, Scout officials said.

Evans Returned As President Of Hancock Group

Jack Evans of 814 Ridge Ave., New Cumberland, was re-elected president of the Hanock County Court of Commissioners during the annual reorganizational meeting Tuesday in the Courthouse.

Evans is serving a six - year term as the Clay District commissioner on the county court. His term will expire next year.

Reappointed were: Anna Finnicum and James Morgan, Courthouse janitors; Alice Alleman and Rebecca Alleman, health department janitors; Margaret Baxter, annex janitor; John Biela and Irwin Higgs, county dog wardens.

Andy Kondik, civil defense director; Louis Kuntupis, cemetery director; Shields Mayhew, custodian of the county infirmary; Angela Travalingo, switchboard operator; Vicki Macek, extra switchboard operator; Leslie Cuppy, jail purchasing agent, and John D. Herron, coroner.

Reappointed to the Hancock Planning Commission were Evans, Ray Shaw, Oliver Johnson, Ramon Wargacki, Edward A. Zagula and Harl Stover.

Applications for renewals of notary publics were approved for Iris V. Cuppy of New Cumberland, Clara Moulds of Weirton, and Oral A. McGown of Newell.

Corrections on two erroneous assessments were approved.

Wesley Glenn Heads Saline Trustee Group

Wesley Glenn was named president of the Saline Township trustees during a meeting Monday in the Township Hall at Hammondsville.

John Boyle was named vice president and Dorman Patterson received the oath of office. Mrs. Beulah Billie, clerk, said routine business was transacted.

None Injured In 4 Crashes

No one was injured in four East Liverpool traffic mishaps Wednesday, police reported.

A collision at 2:50 p.m. yesterday at Pennsylvania Ave. and Vine St. damaged a 1962 model station wagon driven by Clifford T. Moore, 41, of 410 Maplewood Ave. and a truck of the Nickles Bakery, Inc., of Martins Ferry operated by John H. Eddy, 67, of 441 W. 4th St.

Moore told police he was driving west on Pennsylvania Ave. when the truck came through a stop sign at Vine St. and hit his car. Eddy said he had halted for the stop sign and then pulled onto the thoroughfare when his truck was hit by the car.

Skids on slippery streets were blamed for two of the mishaps. A collision on E. 4th St. 100 feet east of Elm St. Wednesday at 2:21 p.m. involved a 1967 sedan driven by James E. Hayes, 20, of 214 Louisiana Ave., Chester, and a 1963 sedan operated by Franklin D. Helton, 22, of 440 Mulberry St. Helton said he braked his car to allow additional clearance for the oncoming Hayes auto and his car skidded and bumped Hayes' vehicle.

A skid also was blamed for a collision at 12:29 p.m. yesterday on St. George St. near Virginia Ave. It involved a 1962 auto driven by Glen W. Stouffer, 30, of Lisbon RD 4 and a 1963 car operated by Robert W. Wilson, 30, of 329 Louisiana Ave., Chester.

The two drivers were approaching each other when they realized there was not sufficient clearance to pass. As they braked, the cars slid on ice and snow and collided, officers said.

A parked 1963 four - door sedan of Willis Vaughn of 2131 Pennsylvania Ave. was damaged yesterday on the lot at the A & P Market when hit by a backing vehicle driven by Shirlene V. Doland, 32, of 739 Avondale St., officers said.

Legion Sets Meeting

Midland American Legion Post 481 did not meet Monday night because of the New Year's holiday. The post will meet Jan. 15 at 8 p.m.

The Saturn 5 rocket made its debut Nov. 9 on a flight designed to test the various systems that will be used when the craft makes its first journey to the moon with Americans aboard the Apollo capsule.

Man Injured On Saw, Eight Others Hurt

A Wellsville area man injured on a saw Wednesday was treated at City Hospital along with eight others.

Robert Falconer of Wellsville RD 1 sustained lacerations of the fingers and a fractured right middle finger on a saw.

Charles O. Camporee To Be Held At McKinley

Prepare For Polar Bear Activities

Scouts of Troop 12 are shown preparing for the Cherokee District Polar Bear Camporee to be held Jan. 12-14 at Camp McKinley near Lisbon.

The program for Saturday, Jan. 13, will feature a demonstration and instruction on winter camping and survival conducted by Roger Hobson, a member of the Army Special Service Forces and an expert in the field of winter survival.

Demonstrations also will be given on shooting with a muzzle - loading rifle, on trap-shooting and on shotgun safety by members of the Columbiana County Fish and Game Club.

Church services will be conducted Sunday, Jan. 14, by the Rev. Richard Wallarab of the Trinity Presbyterian Church of East Liverpool.

Visitors are welcome to the camp at any time during the day session, Scout officials said.

None Injured In 4 Crashes

No one was injured in four East Liverpool traffic mishaps Wednesday, police reported.

A collision at 2:50 p.m. yesterday at Pennsylvania Ave. and Vine St. damaged a 1962 model station wagon driven by Clifford T. Moore, 41, of 410 Maplewood Ave. and a truck of the Nickles Bakery, Inc., of Martins Ferry operated by John H. Eddy, 67, of 441 W. 4th St.

Moore told police he was driving west on Pennsylvania Ave. when the truck came through a stop sign at Vine St. and hit his car. Eddy said he had halted for the stop sign and then pulled onto the thoroughfare when his truck was hit by the car.

Skids on slippery streets were blamed for two of the mishaps. A collision on E. 4th St. 100 feet east of Elm St. Wednesday at 2:21 p.m. involved a 1967 sedan driven by James E. Hayes, 20, of 214 Louisiana Ave., Chester, and a 1963 sedan operated by Franklin D. Helton, 22, of 440 Mulberry St. Helton said he braked his car to allow additional clearance for the oncoming Hayes auto and his car skidded and bumped Hayes' vehicle.

A skid also was blamed for a collision at 12:29 p.m. yesterday on St. George St. near Virginia Ave. It involved a 1962 auto driven by Glen W. Stouffer, 30, of Lisbon RD 4 and a 1963 car operated by Robert W. Wilson, 30, of 329 Louisiana Ave., Chester.

The two drivers were approaching each other when they realized there was not sufficient clearance to pass. As they braked, the cars slid on ice and snow and collided, officers said.

A parked 1963 four - door sedan of Willis Vaughn of 2131 Pennsylvania Ave. was damaged yesterday on the lot at the A & P Market when hit by a backing vehicle driven by Shirlene V. Doland, 32, of 739 Avondale St., officers said.

Legion Sets Meeting

Midland American Legion Post 481 did not meet Monday night because of the New Year's holiday. The post will meet Jan. 15 at 8 p.m.

The Saturn 5 rocket made its debut Nov. 9 on a flight designed to test the various systems that will be used when the craft makes its first journey to the moon with Americans aboard the Apollo capsule.

Man Injured On Saw, Eight Others Hurt

A Wellsville area man injured on a saw Wednesday was treated at City Hospital along with eight others.

Robert Falconer of Wellsville RD 1 sustained lacerations of the fingers and a fractured right middle finger on a saw.

Also treated were Uel LeMasters of 1520 Commerce St., Wellsville, employed by the Russell Dairy Co., a sprain of the right ankle in a fall on steps while at work; Glenn Collins of 1715 Anderson Blvd., employed by the Harker China Co., a right foot injury when a sagger fell.

Charles O. Standley, son of Wayne Standley of 310 Carolina Ave., a nose injury when struck by a basketball at Westgate Junior High School; Bernard Benford of 1211 Anderson Ave., Wellsville, employed by the Ohio State Highway Department at Leetonia, a contusion of the right fingers when a snowplow frame dropped.

Randy Morrow, son of Donald Morrow of 760 Woodlawn Ave., a laceration of the forehead in a fall on ice; Larry Parsons, son of Mrs. Grace Parsons of 471 Mulberry St., a right shoulder injury in a fall during basketball practice.

Susan Conley, daughter of Harley Conley of 6 Auburn Ave., a right ankle sprain while jumping rope; Mrs. Donald Bryarley of 260½ Ridgeway Ave., a contusion of the right hip in a fall down steps.

A zucchetto is the small round skullcap worn by Roman Catholic ecclesiastics.

Evans Returned As President Of Hancock Group

Jack Evans of 814 Ridge Ave., New Cumberland, was re-elected president of the Hanock County Court of Commissioners during the annual reorganizational meeting Tuesday in the Courthouse.

Evans is serving a six - year term as the Clay District commissioner on the county court. His term will expire next year.

Reappointed were: Anna Finnicum and James Morgan, Courthouse janitors; Alice Alleman and Rebecca Alleman, health department janitors; Margaret Baxter, annex janitor; John Biela and Irwin Higgs, county dog wardens.

Andy Kondik, civil defense director; Louis Kuntupis, cemetery director; Shields Mayhew, custodian of the county infirmary; Angela Travalingo, switchboard operator; Vicki Macek, extra switchboard operator; Leslie Cuppy, jail purchasing agent, and John D. Herron, coroner.

Couple Visits Ski Resort; Will Reside In Cleveland

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Wayne Ganas will reside in Cleveland following a honeymoon at the Seven Springs ski resort in Pennsylvania.

The former Miss Mary Alice Kendall, Mrs. Ganas is the daughter of the late Mrs. Alice Koerber Kendall and niece of Mr. and Mrs. William Basil Plemons of Boyd St. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Ganas of 406 Azalea Ave.

—:—

Thurman Allan, soloist, sang, "Because," "Wither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Eleanor Rice recited the couple's favorite poem, "How Do I Love Thee."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Sherry Koerber, wore a gown of re-embroidered lace over peau de soie. It was fashioned with a scoop neckline, empire bodice embroidered with crystals and seed pearls and long pointed sleeves. The floor-length skirt, designed in an A-line with front inverted pleats, featured a detachable fan-shaped train.

Her butterfly veil of imported illusion was attached to a queen's crown of pearls with lace medallions on peau de soie. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink roses. She wore a strand of pearls which belonged to her grandmother and observed the familiar wedding traditions.

Mrs. Deanna Plemons, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Lillian Gilbert and Miss Sue Myers, also cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Kimberly Shaneyfelt was flower girl.

THE MATRON of honor and the bridesmaids wore floor-length gowns of peacock chiffon cage-style sheaths over satin, featuring a satin cowl collar with matching bow, empire bodice and long chiffon full sleeves. Their headpieces were satin Dior bows with theater veils and the bouquets were colonial arrangements of pink carnations.

The flower girl was attired in a pale pink floor-length gown designed on the same lines as the other attendants. She carried a basket of pink petals.

The bride's aunt chose a two-piece gold suit with brown and gold accessories and her corsage was of white carnations with gold bow. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a two-piece metallic silver suit with silver and pink accessories. She wore a white and pink carnation corsage.

Dave McIntosh was best man and James Roslund and James McManus were ushers. James Gilbert, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

The reception was held at the Tri-State Casting Club. Aides were Mrs. Nina Myers, Mrs. Mary Wines, Mrs. Ethel Fryman, Nancy Fryman and Jennifer Koerber. Mrs. Pamela Howell registered the guests.

The parents of the bridegroom entertained the wedding party with a rehearsal dinner at Hoge's Restaurant.

The bride is a graduate of East Liverpool High School and the East Liverpool Hospital School of Nursing. She is employed as a registered nurse at Parma Hospital. Her husband is a graduate of East Liverpool High School and attended the Eastern Nazarene College at Wollaston, Mass., and Youngstown University. He is a chemical technican at the Harshaw Chemical Co. in Cleveland.

Ohio Brothers Undergo Kidney Surgery Today

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jim Partee and his brother, Philip, undergo a seven-hour kidney transplant operation today at the Cleveland Clinic so one brother has a chance to live.

Surgeons will remove a healthy kidney from Jim, 25, and transplant it immediately to Philip, 27.

Dr. B. H. Stewart said Philip will have a 75 per cent chance of living a year or more if he gets a good kidney. "We have some patients who had the same thing he's going to have five years ago and they're still alive," Dr. Stewart said.

The men are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Partee of Yellow Springs.

The doctor said Jim Partee's kidneys "are perfect" and the transplanted organ should be them.

CIRCUMCISION

Q. Should all boy babies be circumcised?
A. Ask 100 doctors this question and you will probably get 50 enthusiastic "aye" and 50 violent "nay" replies. Probably no surgical topic is as controversial as wholesale infant circumcision. Some doctors perform the procedure routinely, others will do so if requested by the parents, while still others advance every argument against it before giving way to "such foolishness."

E.S.R. TESTS

Q. What is the E.S.R. test? For what purpose is it performed?
A. The E.S.R. (erythrocyte sedimentation rate) test measures the settling rate of red blood cells (erythrocytes) under standard laboratory conditions. The E.S.R. seems to reflect the response of the body to injury, such as occurs in certain diseases. The test is one of several laboratory procedures which the doctor may order to assist in making a diagnosis.

Couple Visits Ski Resort; Will Reside In Cleveland

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Wayne Ganas will reside in Cleveland following a honeymoon at the Seven Springs ski resort in Pennsylvania.

The former Miss Mary Alice Kendall, Mrs. Ganas is the daughter of the late Mrs. Alice Koerber Kendall and niece of Mr. and Mrs. William Basil Plemons of Boyd St. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Ganas of 408 Azalea Ave.

—:—

Thurman Allan, soloist, sang, "Because," "Wither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Eleanor Rice recited the couple's favorite poem, "How Do I Love Thee."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Sherry Koerber, wore a gown of re-embroidered lace over peau de soie. It was fashioned with a scoop neckline, empire bodice embroidered with crystals and seed pearls and long pointed sleeves. The floor-length skirt, designed in an A-line with front inverted pleats, featured a detachable fan-shaped train.

Her butterfly veil of imported illusion was attached to a queen's crown of pearls with lace medallions on peau de soie. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink roses. She wore a strand of pearls which belonged to her grandmother and observed the familiar wedding traditions.

Mrs. Deanna Plemons, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Lillian Gilbert and Miss Sue Myers, also cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Kimberly Shaneyfelt was flower girl.

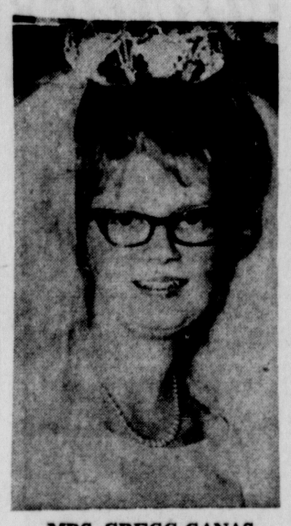
THE MATRON of honor and the bridesmaids wore floor - length gowns of peacock chiffon cage-style sheaths over satin, featuring a satin cowl collar with matching bow, empire bodice and long chiffon full sleeves. Their headpieces were satin Dior bows with theater veils and the bouquets were colonial arrangements of pink carnations.



MRS. GREGG GANAS
Weds In Church Rites.

The flower girl was attired in a pale pink floor-length gown designed on the same lines as the other attendants. She carried a basket of pink petals.

The bride's aunt chose a two-piece gold suit with brown and gold accessories and her corsage was of white carnations with gold bow. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a two-piece metallic silver suit with silver and pink accessories. She wore a white and pink carnation corsage.

Dave McIntosh was best man and James Roslund and James McManus were ushers. James Gilbert, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

The reception was held at the Tri-State Casting Club. Aides were Mrs. Nina Myers, Mrs. Mary Wines, Mrs. Ethel Fryman, Nancy Fryman and Jennifer Koerber. Mrs. Pamela Howell registered the guests.

The parents of the bridegroom entertained the wedding party with a rehearsal dinner at Hoge's Restaurant.

The bride is a graduate of East Liverpool High School and the East Liverpool Hospital School of Nursing. She is employed as a registered nurse at Parma Hospital. Her husband is a graduate of East Liverpool High School and attended the Eastern Nazarene College at Wollaston, Mass., and Youngstown University. He is a chemical technican at the Harshaw Chemical Co. in Cleveland.

Ohio Brothers Undergo Kidney Surgery Today

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jim Partee and his brother, Philip, undergo a seven-hour kidney transplant operation today at the Cleveland Clinic so one brother has a chance to live.

Surgeons will remove a healthy kidney from Jim, 25, and transplant it immediately to Philip, 27.

Dr. B. H. Stewart said Philip will have a 75 per cent chance of living a year or more if he gets a good kidney. "We have some patients who had the same thing he's going to have five years ago and they're still alive," Dr. Stewart said.

The men are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Partee of Yellow Springs.

The doctor said Jim Partee's kidneys "are perfect" and the transplanted organ should be them.

CIRCUMCISION
Q. Should all boy babies be circumcised?
A. Ask 100 doctors this question and you will probably get 50 enthusiastic "aye" and 50 violent "nay" replies. Probably no surgical topic is as controversial as wholesale infant circumcision. Some doctors perform the procedure routinely, others will do so if requested by the parents, while still others advance every argument against it before giving way to "such foolishness."

E.S.R. TESTS
Q. What is the E.S.R. test? For what purpose is it performed?
A. The E.S.R. (erythrocyte sedimentation rate) test measures the settling rate of red blood cells (erythrocytes) under standard laboratory conditions. The E.S.R. seems to reflect the response of the body to injury, such as occurs in certain diseases. The test is one of several laboratory procedures which the doctor may order to assist in making a diagnosis.

W. Va. Man Sues U.S. For $100 Million

CHARLESTON (AP) — Robert S. Neely Jr., former Hinton bank executive, filed a $100 million damage suit against the U.S. government Wednesday, charging that he was unlawfully prosecuted by the Justice Department.

The one-time chief executive officer for the First National Bank of Hinton filed the civil action in the U.S. District Court at Charleston.

He maintained in his bill of complaint that federal authorities used "false and fictitious evidence" in obtaining his Nov. 9, 1965 conviction on a charge of misapplication of $5,000 in bank funds.

In addition, he claimed his constitutional rights were violated when he was not allowed to withdraw his guilty plea to the embezzlement charge. Neely was sentenced to three years probation on Jan. 3, 1966 by Federal Judge John A. Field Jr.

Acting as his own counsel, Neely contended he was wrongfully prosecuted by the Justice Department because the $5,000 in question was a loan made "with the full knowledge and consent of the bank's board of directors.

He also stated that the U.S. Supreme Court had upheld a decision involving a similar case on appeal from a Massachusetts Circuit Court of Appeals.

Neely said the case he referred to indicated "there can be no intent to defraud if a bank's board of directors has knowledge of such loans."

Neely said he currently is unemployed and he had spent the months since his conviction preparing the legal framework for his suit.

Sentencing Delayed

CINCINNATI (AP)—Greenie Webster, 42, was convicted Wednesday of first-degree manslaughter in the fatal shooting last July of Mrs. Gwendolyn Blythe.

3 Uninjured When Trucks Upset, Crash

A Darlington man whose truck tumbled over four times after smashing through a fence and two tractor-trailer drivers whose rigs collided near Salineville escaped injury Wednesday, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Joseph A. Zelonis, 27, of Darlington RD 1 was jailed after his pickup truck wrecked along Route 154 about a mile east of Negley last night at 11:27.

Officers said he was headed east when the 1965 truck went off the left side, sideswiped a railroad warning sign and utility pole, crashed through the fence, ripping out 75 feet of it, then overturned four times, landing on its top.

Zelonis was charged with driving while intoxicated.

Willard Jordan, 36, of Bliss, N.Y., was cited after his rig sideswiped another, causing it to swerve into a parked auto and a pallet storage yard at 5:50 p.m. along Route 644 about 1½ miles north of Salineville.

Officers said Jordan was headed south when his trailer went left of center, striking a northbound rig operated by Jerry Morrow, 42, of Hanoverton head-on.

Morrow's rig went off the east side, hit a parked auto owned by Frank W. Ketchum of Lisbon RD 1 and continued on into the storage yard, damaging 700 wooden pallets.

Jordan's rig went off the roadway, its rear axles torn off. He was charged with driving left of center.

Bridge's Fall Blamed Upon Overloading

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va.—The head of the civil engineering department of Carnegie-Mellon University in Pittsburgh says that the primary cause of the Dec. 15 Silver Bridge disaster was overloading.

"The bridge was probably subjected to the greatest load it had ever been under," said Dr. Thomas Stelson. He inspected the wreckage shortly after the accident.

—:—

"THERE were no weak spots in the portions I observed," he said.

Bridge failures are a rare thing, Stelson said, but added that there could be a repetition of the catastrophe at other Ohio River bridges unless load limits are rigidly enforced.

He emphasized that he is not ruling out the possibility of structural defect in the 39-year-old Silver Bridge. It was last inspected by the state of West Virginia in 1965.

"Generally, I would say the bridges are well maintained and in good condition, but they were built for 15-ton trucks and the legal load limit now is about 36 tons," he said.

The Silver Bridge was the first suspension span in the United States to be constructed with heat-treated I-bars holding up the roadway instead of woven wire strands.

Dr. Stelson said this may have made it less safe than a woven-wire type bridge.

—:—

"THE I-BARS of the Silver Bridge are like chains and a chain is only as strong as its weakest link," he said. "There may be several hundred strands on a strand suspension bridge and you can break five or six of the strands and the bridge still doesn't collapse."

Dr. Stelson said the I-bar linkage to one of the supporting piers on the upstream side failed.

"That threw the full weight of the roadway on the other side which couldn't hold it either," he added.

"Eyewitnesses said the Cable had failed near the Ohio side on the upstream, but when I got down there I inspected it for 300 feet and it was perfectly all right."

Palestine Session Set On New Housing Rule

Two representatives of the Chicago regional office of the Department of Housing and Urban Development will appear at a public meeting Jan. 18 at 8 p. m. in the East Palestine High School auditorium to explain new rules and laws governing erection of federally - sponsored public housing units.

The meeting was arranged by Merrill D. Hall, executive director of the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority. He said the officials will discuss a new law under which public housing may be erected by a private developer and then leased to the local authority.

Previously, the housing units could be erected only by the authority, which owned the structures, and borrowed money on long-term bonds to cover the contract price. Hall said public officials and other interested parties will be invited to the meeting, including county commissioners, township trustees and the mayors and councils of all cities and villages.

Ohio Board Members Set Office Terms

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Members of the state Board of Education drew lots Wednesday to determine terms of office since all 24 members were elected last fall to conform board districts with current Congressional districts.

The drawing was for two, four or six-year terms. They could be upset, however, by the need for further Congressional redistricting by the General Assembly to comply with a recent U. S. Supreme Court decision.

Drawing six-year terms, and the districts they represent, were:

John Meckstroth, Cincinnati, 2nd District; Robert A. Lyons, Dayton, 3rd; Wayne E. Shaffer, Bryan, 5th; Alan D. Wright, Mentor 11th; Paul L. Walker, Bexley, 12th; Donn J. Force, Columbus, 15th; Byron Wade, Youngstown, 19th; and Everett L. Jung, Hamilton, 24th.

Four-year terms:

Cecil M. Sims, Piqua, 4th; Edward C. Ames, Toledo 9th; Elliott E. Meyers, Ironton, 10th; Susan D. George, Canton, 16th; Lorin E. Bixler, New Concord, 17th; Robert W. Walker, Adena, 18th; Robert W. Jaskulski, Garfield Heights, 21st; and Jeannet S. Wagner, Chagrin Falls, 23rd.

Two-year terms:

William Judd, Cincinnati, 1st; Ward M. Miller, Portsmouth, 6th; John M. Scott, Xenia, 7th; Bryce Welker, Republic, 8th; Jay E. Wagner Jr., Sandusky, 13th; Francis W. Spicer, Akron, 14th; Russell H. Davis, Cleveland, 20th; and Robert J. Grogan, Cleveland Heights, 22nd.

Officers Named By Hairdressers For 1968 Terms

Mrs. Dorothy Putnam, owner of the Dorothy Grace Beauty Shoppe, was elected president of Unit 15 of the National Hairdressers Cosmetology Association Tuesday night at the A. & H. School of Beauty Culture on Broadway.

She succeeds Mrs. Helen Clark, owner of the A. & H., who was named second vice president.

Others elected include Jimmy Dale, an associate of the Red Rose Salon of Beauty, first vice president; Mrs. Dora Fickle, owner of Linn's Beauty Shop, third vice presdent; Mrs. Marie Gallagher, owner of the Marie Beauty Salon, treasurer; Miss Eleanor Doak, owner of the Vogue Beauty Shop, secretary; Mrs. Gwen Smith, a teacher at the A. & H. School, financial secretary, and Mrs. Mildred M. Johnston, owner of the Red Rose Salon of Beauty, reporter and historian.

The next meeting will be Feb. 6 at the A. & H. Beauty School.

Ohio Teacher Stabbed Condition Not Serious

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police said a 17-year-old student told them "I wanted to hurt her" when he was picked up in connection with the stabbing of an English teacher at Aiken High School Wednesday.

The youth, whose name was withheld because of his age, was placed in the Juvenile Detention Center under $2,500 bond.

Officers said he offered no resistance when they found him sitting in a nearby church, his head bowed.

The teacher, Ruth Catlin, 50, was stabbed with a pocket knife. Her wound, however, was not considered serious.

Police were told Mrs. Catlin was in the classroom, watching her students enter when one boy seemed ill. When she questioned him he turned and stabbed her, she told police.

Research Career Ended By Native Of East Liverpool

A native of East Liverpool has retired after a 20-year career in the federal service.

He is Dr. Harold W. Coles, pioneering research laboratory program coordinator at the Army's Natick (Mass.) Laboratories.

Prior to assuming his duties as chief of the chemistry branch of the pioneering division at the Natick Labs in 1948, Dr. Coles held research positions at the Bausch & Lomb Optical Co., Rochester, N.Y.; the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research, Pittsburgh, Pa., and the Lilly Research Labs, Indianapolis, Ind.

In 1952, he served as assistant chief, research and development labs, Philadelphia Quartermaster Depot, for six months.

Dr. Coles was graduated cum laude from Syracuse University in 1923 with a B.S. in chemistry.

He earned an M.S. in Bacteriology in 1926 and a Ph.D. in Chemistry in 1927 from Iowa State University, and also taught chemistry there as a student.

He has published more than 50 articles in various scientific journals and holds several patents.

At the close of World War II, Dr. Coles received the Navy "E" Award and the Bausch & Lomb Optical award for civilian service.

He is an emeritus member of the American Chemical Society, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the New York Chemists Club and the New York Academy of Science.

Dr. Coles and his wife, the former Esther Ohrbeck of Minneapolis, plan to visit a daughter, Mrs. James Mackey, in California shortly after retirement.

Dr. and Mrs. Coles, of 22 Bellefontaine Ave., Framingham, Mass., have two other daughters, Mrs. Sig Bookbinder and Mrs. Joseph Eiss, both of Brooklyn, and four grandchildren.

Motel Operator Dies Of Monoxide Fumes

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Carbon monoxide fumes killed an Ironton motel operator Wednesday and left his wife in critical condition, police reported.

Killed was Walter Kelley, 43, who was found in the office of the motel. His wife, Lucille, 41, was found unconscious in an adjoining bedroom. Police said the fumes came from a defective heater in the office.

The raccoon washes its meat and fish in water before eating it.

Appeal Made For District 'Dimes' Drive

An appeal for support of the annual March of Dimes campaign was issued today by James W. Crooks of Sturgis Ave. and Mrs. Pansy Ice of 843 Valley Ave., East Liverpool area drive leaders.

Crooks is chairman of the area campaign and Mrs. Ice will head the "Mothers March", Richard G. Brian of Vine St., Columbiana County chairman, said.

The leaders pointed out more than 250,000 children are born annually with birth defects for which the "March" provides funds for treatment.

"We wish every child could have 'a sound mind in a sound body,' but this is not yet possible. We can, however, try to make available to the unfortunate the finest medical treatment in the land," Crooks said.

"Children with serious birth defects frequently require the skills of a number of different medical specialists working together. This team approach is practiced in each of nearly 100 March of Dimes - supported Birth Defects Centers where the total care of a child is coordinated under the direction of a single physician."

"Treating a birth defect child can be costly to the community. Today, an estimated 1,375,000 American children under the age of six are birth defect victims. Most of these children require specialized medical, educational or custodial care," Crooks said.

"The March of Dimes is trying to help as many of these children as possible to return quickly to their homes and become productive members of society. To help us do a successful job, please contribute to the campaign," he urged.

2-Quarter Limit Set At Chester For Water Bills

A limit of two quarters was placed on delinquent water bills when the Chester Water and Sewage Board met Wednesday night.

Discussed in the past, the board decided that no bills will go into the third quarter. If the bills aren't paid at the end of two quarters, service will be discontinued, Mayor Burton Ward announced.

The board has not received a report from the engineer on the installation of a pump at 1st St. One bid has been submitted and forwarded to the engineer. If the bid is approved, work should be started soon, members said.

Local Motorist Cited In Route 7 Accident

A 56-year-old East Liverpool driver was cited for failure to stop within an assured clear distance following an accident on Route 7 at Stratton Wednesday at 6:30 p. m.

Lowry Hurst Marshall of 811 Lincoln Ave., driving a 1962 vehicle, struck the rear of a station wagon owned by Victor Morgan, 41, of Toronto.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Wintersville said Morgan had stopped behind a stalled car to help get it started and was attempting to warn oncoming traffic when his vehicle was struck by Marshall's car.

Ohio Board Members Set Office Terms

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Members of the state Board of Education drew lots Wednesday to determine terms of office since all 24 members were elected last fall to conform board districts with current Congressional districts.

The drawing was for two, four or six-year terms. They could be upset, however, by the need for further Congressional redistricting by the General Assembly to comply with a recent U. S. Supreme Court decision.

Drawing six-year terms, and the districts they represent, were:

John Meckstroth, Cincinnati, 2nd District; Robert A. Lyons, Dayton, 3rd; Wayne E. Shaffer, Bryan, 5th; Alan D. Wright, Mentor 11th; Paul L. Walker, Bexley, 12th; Donn J. Force, Columbus, 15th; Byron Wade, Youngstown, 19th; and Everett L. Jung, Hamilton, 24th.

Four-year terms:

Cecil M. Sims, Piqua, 4th; Edward C. Ames, Toledo 9th; Elliott E. Meyers, Ironton, 10th; Susan D. George, Canton, 16th; Lorin E. Bixler, New Concord, 17th; Robert W. Walker, Adena, 18th; Robert W. Jaskulski, Garfield Heights, 21st; and Jeannet S. Wagner, Chagrin Falls, 23rd.

Two-year terms:

William Judd, Cincinnati, 1st; Ward M. Miller, Portsmouth, 6th; John M. Scott, Xenia, 7th; Bryce Weiker, Republic, 8th; Jay E. Wagner Jr., Sandusky, 13th; Francis W. Spicer, Akron, 14th; Russell H. Davis, Cleveland, 20th; and Robert J. Grogan, Cleveland Heights, 22nd.

Officers Named By Hairdressers For 1968 Terms

Mrs. Dorothy Putnam, owner of the Dorothy Grace Beauty Shoppe, was elected president of Unit 15 of the National Hairdressers Cosmetology Association Tuesday night at the A. & H. School of Beauty Culture on Broadway.

She succeeds Mrs. Helen Clark, owner of the A. & H., who was named second vice president.

Others elected include Jimmy Dale, an associate of the Red Rose Salon of Beauty, first vice president; Mrs. Dora Fickle, owner of Linn's Beauty Shop, third vice presdent; Mrs. Marie Gallagher, owner of the Marie Beauty Salon, treasurer; Miss Eleanor Doak, owner of the Vogue Beauty Shop, secretary; Mrs. Gwen Smith, a teacher at the A. & H. School, financial secretary, and Mrs. Mildred M. Johnston, owner of the Red Rose Salon of Beauty, reporter and historian.

The next meeting will be Feb. 6 at the A. & H. Beauty School.

Ohio Teacher Stabbed Condition Not Serious

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police said a 17-year-old student told them "I wanted to hurt her" when he was picked up in connection with the stabbing of an English teacher at Aiken High School Wednesday.

The youth, whose name was withheld because of his age, was placed in the Juvenile Detention Center under $2,500 bond.

Officers said he offered no resistance when they found him sitting in a nearby church, his head bowed.

The teacher, Ruth Catlin, 50, was stabbed with a pocket knife. Her wound, however, was not considered serious.

Police were told Mrs. Catlin was in the classroom, watching her students enter when one boy seemed ill. When she questioned him he turned and stabbed her, she told police.

Research Career Ended By Native Of East Liverpool

A native of East Liverpool has retired after a 20-year career in the federal service.

He is Dr. Harold W. Coles, pioneering research laboratory program coordinator at the Army's Natick (Mass.) Laboratories.

Prior to assuming his duties as chief of the chemistry branch of the pioneering division at the Natick Labs in 1948, Dr. Coles held research positions at the Bausch & Lomb Optical Co., Rochester, N.Y.; the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research, Pittsburgh, Pa., and the Lilly Research Labs, Indianapolis, Ind.

In 1952, he served as assistant chief, research and development labs, Philadelphia Quartermaster Depot, for six months.

Dr. Coles was graduated cum laude from Syracuse University in 1923 with a B.S. in chemistry.

He earned an M.S. in Bacteriology in 1926 and a Ph.D. in Chemistry in 1927 from Iowa State University, and also taught chemistry there as a student.

He has published more than 50 articles in various scientific journals and holds several patents.

At the close of World War II, Dr. Coles received the Navy "E" Award and the Bausch & Lomb Optical award for civilian service.

He is an emeritus member of the Amercan Chemical Society, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the New York Chemists Club and the New York Academy of Science.

Dr. Coles and his wife, the former Esther Ohrbeck of Minneapolis, plan to visit a daughter, Mrs. James Mackey, in California shortly after retirement.

Dr. and Mrs. Coles, of 22 Bellefontaine Ave., Framingham, Mass., have two other daughters, Mrs. Sig Bookbinder and Mrs. Joseph Eiss, both of Brooklyn, and four grandchildren.

Motel Operator Dies Of Monoxide Fumes

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Carbon monoxide fumes killed an Ironton motel operator Wednesday and left his wife in critical condition, police reported.

Killed was Walter Kelley, 43, who was found in the office of the motel. His wife, Lucille, 41, was found unconscious in an adjoining bedroom. Police said the fumes came from a defective heater in the office.

Appeal Made For District 'Dimes' Drive

An appeal for support of the annual March of Dimes campaign was issued today by James W. Crooks of Sturgis Ave. and Mrs. Pansy Ice of 843 Valley Ave., East Liverpool area drive leaders.

Crooks is chairman of the area campaign and Mrs. Ice will head the "Mothers March", Richard G. Brian of Vine St., Columbiana County chairman, said.

The leaders pointed out more than 250,000 children are born annually with birth defects for which the "March" provides funds for treatment.

"We wish every child could have 'a sound mind in a sound body,' but this is not yet possible. We can, however, try to make available to the unfortunate the finest medical treatment in the land," Crooks said.

"Children with serious birth defects frequently require the skills of a number of different medical specialists working together. This team approach is practiced in each of nearly 100 March of Dimes - supported Birth Defects Centers where the total care of a child is coordinated under the direction of a single physician."

"Treating a birth defect child can be costly to the community. Today, an estimated 1,375,000 American children under the age of six are birth defect victims. Most of these children require specialized medical, educational or custodial care," Crooks said.

"The March of Dimes is trying to help as many of these children as possible to return quickly to their homes and become productive members of society. To help us do a successful job, please contribute to the campaign," he urged.

2-Quarter Limit Set At Chester For Water Bills

A limit of two quarters was placed on delinquent water bills when the Chester Water and Sewage Board met Wednesday night.

Discussed in the past, the board decided that no bills will go into the third quarter. If the bills aren't paid at the end of two quarters, service will be discontinued, Mayor Burton Ward announced.

The board has not received a report from the engineer on the installation of a pump at 1st St. One bid has been submitted and forwarded to the engineer. If the bid is approved, work should be started soon, members said.

Local Motorist Cited In Route 7 Accident

A 56-year-old East Liverpool driver was cited for failure to stop within an assured clear distance following an accident on Route 7 at Stratton Wednesday at 6:30 p. m.

Lowry Hurst Marshall of 811 Lincoln Ave., driving a 1962 vehicle, struck the rear of a station wagon owned by Victor Morgan, 41, of Toronto.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Wintersville said Morgan had stopped behind a stalled car to help get it started and was attempting to warn oncoming traffic when his vehicle was struck by Marshall's car.

Driver Given Jail Sentence

A 42-year-old East Liverpool man was sentenced to five days in jail, fined $250 and costs and given a 90-day suspension of his operator's permit when he pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Russell Wesley Carnes of 414 Sugar St., who identified himself as an employe of a soup company in Napoleon, was arrested Wednesday at 6:41 p.m. on Sugar St. by Patrolman Charles Coen and David Mumaw.

Judge Chertoff cited a newly-effective state law that requires persons whose operator's permits are suspended to surrender the license tags from their autos. He instructed Coen to remove the tags from Carnes' auto and turn them over to the court to be forwarded to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles in Columbus. The law provides the BMV will issue a distinctive tag if some other member of the suspended driver's family chooses to operate the auto.

Coen told the court he first spotted Carnes' auto on Dresden Ave. He said he followed the defendant along Smith St., Broadway, E. 5th St. and Sugar St. He testified that Carnes "was going east in the westbound lane" on E. 5th St. Carnes was "highly intoxicated," he testified.

Study Continues On Tax Boost In Beaver County

Beaver County still is studying the possibility of a tax increase and Wednesday afternoon Commissioner James Ross said it wil be another week before any figures are firm.

The commissioners announced last week a "conservative tax millage increase" was in the making.

Ross said the commissioners are working on the budget for 1968. Meetings were held yesterday with officials of the Beaver County Home and Hospital on the needs of the institutions.

The county and boroughs are faced with a tax loss because of the Supreme Court ruling on industrial assessments. The total valuation loss in the county on this county is more than $4 million.

Street Crew Pushes Snow Removal Task

Street department crews are continuing cleanup work in the wake of a heavy snow that blanketed the East Liverpool area over the holiday weekend.

The workers used snowplows Wednesday to shove a heavy accumulation of snow away from curbs in the downtown district. The snow was moved into the traffic lanes to allow to melt from the effects of salt and the wheels of moving vehicles.

Crews also went to work to remove a heavy accumulation of ice that formed in some of the heavily - used business district alleys.

Romney Seen As 'Setup' For Nixon In Hampshire

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney, who concedes he trails Richard M. Nixon in popularity polls, "may be a setup" for Nixon in New Hampshire's Republican presidential primary says a liberal GOP group.

The Ripon Society said in its current newsletter a Nixon-Romney contest in New Hampshire could be similar to the West Virginia Democratic primary of 1960 in which John F. Kennedy defeated Hubert H. Humphrey.

Humphrey quit the presidential race after that defeat and Kennedy went on to win the nomination and the White House.

"Romney may be a setup for Nixon just as Humphrey was for Kennedy," the Ripon Society said. "As John Kennedy demonstrated in 1960, a landslide victory, even over an opponent who never really had a chance, can be made a convincing selling point in the campaign for delegate votes in other states."

Romney told newsmen Wednesday in New York after completing his foreign tour: "I am an underdog and I have an uphill battle. I'm not unaccustomed to this."

Before flying home, he told Paris reporters who asked him to comment on public opinion polls showing him further behind Nixon now than last June: "Oh, I think that's a reflection of the press more than the people.

"I think the press has been very negative for a long time toward me...And I think when I indicate what I believe in and what I stand for that I can change that picture."

Romney heads for New Hampshire Jan. 11 to open his campaign and is scheduled to visit at least eight communities that day. He's expected to spend five days on his initial campaign trip. He has made it clear he plans a campaign which will bring him in personal touch with as many voters as possible in that small state "so they will see what I have." The primary is March 12.

The Ripon Society published a poll taken among readers of its newsletter, The Forum, with 60 per cent rating New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller their first choice for the GOP nomination.

It reported 78 per cent of the readers responding consider Rockefeller the Republican most likely to defeat President Johnson. But 70.6 per cent of the same liberal Republicans said Nixon has the best chance of winning the nomination. Rockefeller maintains he won't seek it.

The society said the poll's most noteworthy result was Romney's "poor showing"—he was ranked fourth choice for the nomination. The society said readers of its newsletter could be expected to be receptive to Romney's candidacy and "this lack of support from his most immediate ideological constituency reveals a serious weakness in Romney's drive for the nomination."

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, who also plans to enter the New Hampshire primary but on the Democratic side, said he doesn't have any clear indication what kind of showing he can make against President Johnson on the Vietnam issue.

McCarthy, who opposes the war policy, told an interviewer his decision to run in New Hampshire means he will have to give up tentative plans for a foreign trip.

Former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, assured a place on California's presidential ballot for his American Independent Party, told a Santa Monica, Calif., news conference he thinks his party will get on the ballot in all 50 states.

Suspect

The lighter area at the bottom of the photo resulted from the fact a hand - drawn replica of a goatee was utilized since no such exact feature was included in the Ident-O-Kit gear.

The suspect was described as a white male in his early 20's and about 6 feet tall. Persons with information should contact the police department at City Hall or telephone 385-1234.

Saling said he was bound and robbed of about $100 early Tuesday. The robber and his accomplices loaded the station's safe into a car or truck and hauled it away. The rifled safe was found a few hours later in the vacant basement of a building in Pink Alley near E. 2nd St.

The theme will be "Communications" when Cub pack of Troop 478 in Ohioville meets Jan. 26 at 7:30 p.m.

At last week's meeting, the theme was "Do Your Best."

Den 3, directed by Mrs. Sylvester Vranes, conducted the opening exercises and Dens 1 and 2 extended the greeting. These dens are supervised by Mrs. James Dunlap and Mrs. Charles Kurcina, assisted by Mrs. Earl Austin.

The program included: Santa story, Earl Austin, with group participation; skit, "Christmas Rose," Den 2, and group singing, led by Vranes.

Charles Schmitt was enrolled as a member. David Austin received his bear badge and gold arrow.

The Cubs decorated the Christmas tree with homemade articles and received a candy treat. Refreshments followed.

Thomas Krakar, John Kundick and Vranes received a special recognition along with others who assisted with the meeting.

Intruders Enter Palestine's VFW

EAST PALESTINE — A television set, whisky and several cases of beer were stolen from the VFW Post Home overnight by intruders who left no marks of a forcible entry.

Police said an undetermined amount of liquor, a color television set, 50 cartons of cigarettes, beer and some change in a cigar box were taken between 1 a.m. when the place closed and 7:45 a.m. today when the loss was discovered.

Two Autos Involved In Hancock Accident

NEW CUMBERLAND — No injuries were reported in a two-car accident on Ridge Ave. Wednesday at 5:30 p.m.

Drivers of the cars were Sally Stover, 17, of New Manchester and Connie Sue Elliott, 22, of Weirton. The accident occurred when the Elliott vehicle was struck from behind by the Stover car when it stopped to let a car turn into Smith St.

Minor damage was reported to both vehicles. No arrest was made. Chief William Webster investigated.

Driver Given Jail Sentence

A 42-year-old East Liverpool man was sentenced to five days in jail, fined $250 and costs and given a 90-day suspension of his operator's permit when he pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Russell Wesley Carnes of 414 Sugar St., who identified himself as an employe of a soup company in Napoleon, was arrested Wednesday at 6:41 p.m. on Sugar St. by Patrolman Charles Coen and David Mumaw.

Judge Chertoff cited a newly-effective state law that requires persons whose operator's permits are suspended to surrender the license tags from their autos. He instructed Coen to remove the tags from Carnes' auto and turn them over to the court to be forwarded to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles in Columbus. The law provides the BMV will issue a distinctive tag if some other member of the suspended driver's family chooses to operate the auto.

Coen told the court he first spotted Carnes' auto on Dresden Ave. He said he followed the defendant along Smith St., Broadway, E. 5th St. and Sugar St. He testified that Carnes "was going east in the westbound lane" on E. 5th St. Carnes was "highly intoxicated," he testified.

Study Continues On Tax Boost In Beaver County

Beaver County still is studying the possibility of a tax increase and Wednesday afternoon Commissioner James Ross said it wil be another week before any figures are firm.

The commissioners announced last week a "conservative tax millage increase" was in the making.

Ross said the commissioners are working on the budget for 1968. Meetings were held yesterday with officials of the Beaver County Home and Hospital on the needs of the institutions.

The county and boroughs are faced with a tax loss because of the Supreme Court ruling on industrial assessments. The total valuation loss in the county on this county is more than $4 million.

Street Crew Pushes Snow Removal Task

Street department crews are continuing cleanup work in the wake of a heavy snow that blanketed the East Liverpool area over the holiday weekend.

The workers used snowplows Wednesday to shove a heavy accumulation of snow away from curbs in the downtown district. The snow was moved into the traffic lanes to allow to melt from the effects of salt and the wheels of moving vehicles.

Crews also went to work to remove a heavy accumulation of ice that formed in some of the heavily - used business district alleys.

Romney Seen As 'Setup' For Nixon In Hampshire

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney, who concedes he trails Richard M. Nixon in popularity polls, "may be a setup" for Nixon in New Hampshire's Republican presidential primary says a liberal GOP group.

The Ripon Society said in its current newsletter a Nixon-Romney contest in New Hampshire could be similar to the West Virginia Democratic primary of 1960 in which John F. Kennedy defeated Hubert H. Humphrey.

Humphrey quit the presidential race after that defeat and Kennedy went on to win the nomination and the White House.

"Romney may be a setup for Nixon just as Humphrey was for Kennedy," the Ripon Society said. "As John Kennedy demonstrated in 1960, a landslide victory, even over an opponent who never really had a chance, can be made a convincing selling point in the campaign for delegate votes in other states."

Romney told newsmen Wednesday in New York after completing his foreign tour: "I am an underdog and I have an uphill battle. I'm not unaccustomed to this."

Before flying home, he told Paris reporters who asked him to comment on public opinion polls showing him further behind Nixon now than last June: "Oh, I think that's a reflection of the press more than the people.

"I think the press has been very negative for a long time toward me...And I think when I indicate what I believe in and what I stand for that I can change that picture."

Romney heads for New Hampshire Jan. 11 to open his campaign and is scheduled to visit at least eight communities that day. He's expected to spend five days on his initial campaign trip. He has made it clear he plans a campaign which will bring him in personal touch with as many voters as possible in that small state "so they will see what I have." The primary is March 12.

The Ripon Society published a poll taken among readers of its newsletter, The Forum, with 60 per cent rating New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller their first choice for the GOP nomination.

It reported 73 per cent of the readers responding consider Rockefeller the Republican most likely to defeat President Johnson. But 70.6 per cent of the same liberal Republicans said Nixon has the best chance of winning the nomination. Rockefeller maintains he won't seek it.

The society said the poll's most noteworthy result was Romney's "poor showing"—he was ranked fourth choice for the nomination. The society said readers of its newsletter could be expected to be receptive to Romney's candidacy and "this lack of support from his most immediate ideological constituency reveals a serious weakness in Romney's drive for the nomination."

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, who also plans to enter the New Hampshire primary but on the Democratic side, said he doesn't have any clear indication what kind of showing he can make against President Johnson on the Vietnam issue.

McCarthy, who opposes the war policy, told an interviewer his decision to run in New Hampshire means he will have to give up tentative plans for a foreign trip.

Former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, assured a place on California's presidential ballot for his American Independent Party, told a Santa Monica, Calif., news conference he thinks his party will get on the ballot in all 50 states.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm sick and tired of your corny cliches. You tell wives to "turn on the heat" and then you add, "If a husband is well fed at home, he will not be inclined to go to restaurants."

Of course my husband shoves these columns under my nose and says, "See anyone here you recognize, Kiddo?

Since you're so smart, Ann, please tell me how can a wife be a great sex partner when her child is having an asthma attack in the next room? — NO FRIEND OF YOURS.

Dear No Friend: How often does your child have asthma attacks? If he has them every night, he needs more help than you realize. If you are using your child's asthma attacks as an excuse, then YOU need more help than I can give you, Kiddo.

The Way Back

Dear Ann: The letter from the woman who fought her way back from mental illness was a chapter out of my life. The similarities were amazing, only I was in worse shape.

I, too, had a sister-in-law who called me a faker and told everyone I was pretending to be sick because I wanted to run away from my responsibilities.

I married young and my husband's family disliked me from the start. I tried hard to please them but it was hopeless.

Finally it got so bad that whenever someone pulled up in the driveway I was afraid it was my in-laws and I became nauseated. A knock at the door would cause me to vomit. When I had to spend an evening with a member of my husband's family I developed a sick headache and sometimes I even fainted.

After six months I developed hysterical blindness and couldn't see for several weeks.

I doctored through all this but no one seemed to understand my problem. My salvation was an angel of a woman who moved next door. She let me come to her house and talk to her for hours. When I felt poorly, she came to my house and listened.

Never once did she remark how messy things looked. She also made me realize how fortunate I was to have a husband who stood by me. Not many men would have taken over the care of the children and kept quiet about his wife's terrible housekeeping and miserable meals.

He was truly Christ-like in his patience and forbearance. Yet I never appreciated him until my neighbor brought it up.

My nightmare life is behind me now and it's hard to believe I was ever so ill. It seems as if it all happened to someone else. The credit for my recovery goes to my neighbor. She saved my life with kindness and understanding. God must have sent her to me. — LUCKY OREGONIAN.

-:-

Dear Lucky: Take some credit yourself, please. The neighbor woman held the lantern, my dear, but it was you who chopped the wood.

Dateless Sunday

Dear Ann: I'm a 16-year-old girl and my parents allow me to date on Friday and Saturday night, but not on Sunday night. I have suggested a compromise. If they will let me go out on Sunday night, I will be in by 10 p.m. I'll also cut short my Saturday night date and be in by 11 p.m.

I make good grades and do my homework. The Sunday night date would not interfere with my grades.

My parents have agreed to accept your decision. What is it? — K. C. TEEN.

Dear K. C.: I'm opposed to high school girls dating on school nights and Sunday is a school night, even if you get in by 10.

If something special is going on an exception should be made; otherwise, no dice. As a compromise, I'm asking your parents to allow you a Sunday afternoon date which means you are to be home no later than 7 p.m.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Weirton Man To Run Again As Assessor

Anthony N. Pirraglia of 135 Forest Rd., Weirton, has filed for re-election as assessor in Hancock County on the Democratic ticket.

Pirraglia, a lifelong resident of Weirton, was graduated from Weir High School in 1946. He attended Steubenville Business College for a year. He is a graduate of the College of Steubenville, with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting and is a public accountant registered by the state of West Virginia.

Pirraglia is an employe of the Weirton Steel Division of the National Steel Corp. He is a veteran of the Korean Conflict, having served two years with the Army.

He is married to the former Dolores Marinacci of Weirton. They have four children.

Pirraglia is a member of the Quarterback Club of the College of Steubenville, the West Virginia Association of Public Accountants, the Knights of Columbus, St. Joseph the Worker Church and the Holy Name Society.

Youth Penalized For Taking Wine

LISBON—A 16-year-old youth from East Liverpool MC 19 was fined $20 in Juvenile Court Tuesday after admitting he took a bottle of wine Nov. 21 from Loblaw's store and resisted arrest.

Judge Louis Tobin made him a ward of the court, placed him on a 7 p.m. curfew for 60 days and suspended his driver's license for two months.

A Wellsville youth, 17, is in detention at the County Jail in lieu of $500 bond, awaiting a hearing Feb. 13 on a complaint that he took the family car Dec. 27 and resisted arrest. The boy requested counsel at arraignment Tuesday.

A 17 - year - old youth from Lisbon RD 1 will have a hearing Feb. 15 on a complaint that on Nov. 1 he received and concealed a set of acetylene torches and gauges, the property of Southern Local High School.

Another boy, 14, of East Liverpool MC 22 was released to the custody of his parents who are to obtain counsel for a hearing Jan. 9 on a complaint of burglary Nov. 25 at Gilmore's Service Station in Glenmoor.

1.4 Billion Penny Stamps Ready When Hike Comes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department, anticipating a heavy demand for one-cent stamps when the cost of mailing a letter jumps to six cents Sunday, says it has 1.4 billion penny stamps on hand to help Americans use up their five-cent stamps.

The Post Office began stockpiling one-cent stamps last September when Congress started considering the department's proposal to hike the cost of mailing a letter from five to six cents—the third postal-rate increase in 10 years.

The department also has been working around the clock producing six-cent stamps—all bearing the profile of former President Franklin D. Roosevelt. It has about four billion of these.

But the early demand is expected to be for penny stamps since there probably will be lots of fives still around when the rates go up Sunday.

Most of the 1.4 billion one-cent stamps—green and bearing a picture of Andrew Jackson—are stored in an auditorium at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in Washington. The department also has a few smaller stockpiles strategically located in five other cities: San Francisco, Dallas, Cincinnati, Chicago and New York.

The Post Office's Bureau of Facilities estimates the department will need about two billion one-cent stamps to meet the needs of customers when the postal hike takes effect. To meet the demand, a spokesman said, government printers are "working 24 hours a day, shipping seven days a week—and we don't anticipate any shortages."

The Post Office also is issuing a new one-cent stamp Jan. 12 with a picture of Thomas Jefferson on it.

Six cents' postage will be required on letters postmarked Jan. 7. Letters postmarked later and bearing only five cents postage will not be returned to the sender, but will be forwarded to the addressee—possibly accompanied by a request for one-cent postage due.

Postal officials were not certain whether all letters carriers will demand the penny postage due on all letters postmarked Sunday and bearing only five cents postage. One official suggested it might cost the Post Office more than it will receive just to collect the penny due on all letters.

Here are the new rates:

First-class letters will go up from 5 to 6 cents an ounce; airmail letters from 8 to 10 cents an ounce; postal cards from 4 to 5 cents each; airmail cards from 6 to 8 cents each.

Second-class mail rates—mostly newspapers and magazines—will be increased about 24 per cent. Bulk third-class mail—mostly advertising circulars—will go up 34 per cent.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm sick and tired of your corny cliches. You tell wives to "turn on the heat" and then you add, "If a husband is well fed at home, he will not be inclined to go to restaurants."

Of course my husband shoves these columns under my nose and says, "See anyone here you recognize, Kiddo?

Since you're so smart, Ann, please tell me how can a wife be a great sex partner when her child is having an asthma attack in the next room? — NO FRIEND OF YOURS.

-:-

Dear No Friend: How often does your child have asthma attacks? If he has them every night, he needs more help than you realize. If you are using your child's asthma attacks as an excuse, then YOU need more help than I can give you, Kiddo.

The Way Back

Dear Ann: The letter from the woman who fought her way back from mental illness was a chapter out of my life. The similarities were amazing, only I was in worse shape.

I, too, had a sister-in-law who called me a faker and told everyone I was pretending to be sick because I wanted to run away from my responsibilities.

I married young and my husband's family disliked me from the start. I tried hard to please them but it was hopeless.

Finally it got so bad that whenever someone pulled up in the driveway I was afraid it was my in-laws and I became nauseated. A knock at the door would cause me to vomit. When I had to spend an evening with a member of my husband's family I developed a sick headache and sometimes I even fainted.

After six months I developed hysterical blindness and couldn't see for several weeks.

I doctored through all this but no one seemed to understand my problem. My salvation was an angel of a woman who moved next door. She let me come to her house and talk to her for hours. When I felt poorly, she came to my house and listened.

Never once did she remark how messy things looked. She also made me realize how fortunate I was to have a husband who stood by me. Not many men would have taken over the care of the children and kept quiet about his wife's terrible housekeeping and miserable meals.

He was truly Christ-like in his patience and forbearance. Yet I never appreciated him until my neighbor brought it up.

My nightmare life is behind me now and it's hard to believe I was ever so ill. It seems as if it all happened to someone else. The credit for my recovery goes to my neighbor. She saved my life with kindness and understandng. God must have sent her to me. — LUCKY OR EGONIAN.

-:-

Dear Lucky: Take some credit yourself, please. The neighbor woman held the lantern, my dear, but it was you who chopped the wood.

Dateless Sunday

Dear Ann: I'm a 16-year-old girl and my parents allow me to date on Friday and Saturday night, but not on Sunday night. I have suggested a compromise. If they will let me go out on Sunday night, I will be in by 10 p.m. I'll also cut short my Saturday night date and be in by 11 p.m.

I make good grades and do my homework. The Sunday night date would not interfere with my grades.

My parents have agreed to accept your decision. What is it? — K. C. TEEN.

Dear K. C.: I'm opposed to high school girls dating on school nights and Sunday is a school night, even if you get in by 10.

If something special is going on an exception should be made; otherwise, no dice. As a compromise, I'm asking your parents to allow you a Sunday afternoon date which means you are to be home no later than 7 p.m.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

1.4 Billion Penny Stamps Ready When Hike Comes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department, anticipating a heavy demand for one-cent stamps when the cost of mailing a letter jumps to six cents Sunday, says it has 1.4 billion penny stamps on hand to help Americans use up their five-cent stamps.

The Post Office began stockpiling one-cent stamps last September when Congress started considering the department's proposal to hike the cost of mailing a letter from five to six cents—the third postal-rate increase in 10 years.

The department also has been working around the clock producing six-cent stamps—all bearing the profile of former President Franklin D. Roosevelt. It has about four billion of these.

But the early demand is expected to be for penny stamps since there probably will be lots of fives still around when the rates go up Sunday.

Most of the 1.4 billion one-cent stamps—green and bearing a picture of Andrew Jackson—are stored in an auditorium at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in Washington. The department also has a few smaller stockpiles strategically located in five other cities: San Francisco, Dallas, Cincinnati, Chicago and New York.

The Post Office's Bureau of Facilities estimates the department will need about two billion one-cent stamps to meet the needs of customers when the postal hike takes effect. To meet the demand, a spokesman said, government printers are "working 24 hours a day, shipping seven days a week—and we don't anticipate any shortages."

The Post Office also is issuing a new one-cent stamp Jan. 12 with a picture of Thomas Jefferson on it.

Six cents' postage will be required on letters postmarked Jan. 7. Letters postmarked later and bearing only five cents postage will not be returned to the sender, but will be forwarded to the addressee—possibly accompanied by a request for one-cent postage due.

Postal officials were not certain whether all letters carriers will demand the penny postage due on all letters postmarked Sunday and bearing only five cents postage. One official suggested it might cost the Post Office more than it will receive just to collect the penny due on all letters.

Here are the new rates:

First-class letters will go up from 5 to 6 cents an ounce; airmail letters from 8 to 10 cents an ounce; postal cards from 4 to 5 cents each; airmail cards from 6 to 8 cents each.

Second-class mail rates—mostly newspapers and magazines—will be increased about 24 per cent. Bulk third-class mail—mostly advertising circulars—will go up 34 per cent.

Weirton Man To Run Again As Assessor

Anthony N. Pirraglia of 135 Forest Rd., Weirton, has filed for re-election as assessor in Hancock County on the Democratic ticket.

Pirraglia, a lifelong resident of Weirton, was graduated from Weir High School in 1946. He attended Steubenville Business College for a year. He is a graduate of the College of Steubenville, with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting and is a public accountant registered by the state of West Virginia.

Pirraglia is an employe of the Weirton Steel Division of the National Steel Corp. He is a veteran of the Korean Conflict, having served two years with the Army.

He is married to the former Dolores Marinacci of Weirton. They have four children.

Pirraglia is a member of the Quarterback Club of the College of Steubenville, the West Virginia Association of Public Accountants, the Knights of Columbus, St. Joseph the Worker Church and the Holy Name Society.

Youth Penalized For Taking Wine

LISBON—A 16-year-old youth from East Liverpool MC 19 was fined $20 in Juvenile Court Tuesday after admitting he took a bottle of wine Nov. 21 from Loblaw's store and resisted arrest.

Judge Louis Tobin made him a ward of the court, placed him on a 7 p.m. curfew for 60 days and suspended his driver's license for two months.

A Wellsville youth, 17, is in detention at the County Jail in lieu of $500 bond, awaiting a hearing Feb. 13 on a complaint that he took the family car Dec. 27 and resisted arrest. The boy requested counsel at arraignment Tuesday.

A 17 - year - old youth from Lisbon RD 1 will have a hearing Feb. 15 on a complaint that on Nov. 1 he received and concealed a set of acetylene torches and gauges, the property of Southern Local High School.

Another boy, 14, of East Liverpool MC 22 was released to the custody of his parents who are to obtain counsel for a hearing Jan. 9 on a complaint of burglary Nov. 25 at Gilmore's Service Station in Glenmoor.

Dawson Will Serve Again In Ohioville

F. Paul Dawson was re-elected president of the Ohioville Council Tuesday night.

Councilman George Gailey Jr. was named vice president, replacing George Daniels Jr., who was defeated in the primary election.

Andrew (Pat) Daniels, another new councilman, was unable to attend because of work and will be sworn in at the regular meeting Thursday night at 8.

Mayor Elmer R. Gifford administered the oath to Phil Gibson, a new member, and Gailey, an incumbent.

Mrs. Emily Carroll was re-elected secretary. She has served seven years. Other appointments were Daniel Baker, borough engineer, and Wilson Salmon of Beaver, solicitor.

Council selected Glenn Dawson to serve as treasurer. The appointment is pending because Dawson is the new assessor for the borough and it is not known if he can hold both positions. The solicitor will check the legality of the matter.

The Beaver Trust Co., Midland Branch, was renamed depositor. Gelindo Malignani was reappointed sanitary sewage inspector.

Police appointments included Bernard Zlatovich, chief, and Michael Haydin, assistant.

Council voted to continue meeting the first Thursday of each month at 8 p. m. Committees will be named later this week and members will be named to the water authority and planning commission.

Sheriff Submits December Report

LISBON — Columbiana County Jail cooks served 2,875 meals during December at an average daily cost of $1.38 for each prisoner, Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan reports.

His monthly summary shows the jail booked 69 prisoners last month in addition to the 34 confined as of Dec. 1. Seventy-one prisoners were released during the month, and one was conveyed to a state institution. Two mental patients were taken to state hospitals. There were 187 visitors at the jail.

The sheriff's office in the Courthouse accepted 56 sets of fox feet and ears for the $3 bounty in December.

Deputies served 235 papers and handled 4,893 radio transmissions and 1,361 phone calls at the jail. Fees totaling $1,061 were collected.

Firemen Quell Blaze In Sedan At Lisbon

LISBON — Volunteer firemen believe a short caused a fire Wednesday which damaged the wiring of a 1964 two-door sedan owned by Melvin Stark of 221 E. Pine St.

The fire broke out about 10:35 a. m. as Mrs. Stark drove the car out an alley next to their residence. Firemen said Stark wisely left the hood down until they arrived with extinguishers. They estimated $30 to $50 damage to the ignition system.

Auto Crashes Drop In 1967

East Liverpool recorded 798 auto mishaps during 1967, a drop of 13 from the 811 in 1966, it was shown today in the annual summary of police department activities.

Two persons were killed in traffic last year, compared with three in 1966. The number of injured hit 161, including 23 pedestrians. In the preceding year, 153 were hurt in traffic, including 33 pedestrians.

The department logged 9,293 radio transmissions in 1967, compared with 8,475 in 1966. There were 865 arrests, including 40 cited for driving while intoxicated and nine arrested for being in physical control of a vehicle while intoxicated. There were 858 arrests in 1966, with 34 charged with driving while intoxicated and four cited for physical control.

Last year saw 75 car thefts, 169 burglaries, 321 thefts and 348 cases of vandalism. In 1966, there were 53 stolen cars, 115 burglaries, 250 thefts and 264 cases of vandalism. The department listed 60 missing persons in 1967, against 39 in 1966. It filed 217 casualty reports on persons injured or taken ill while on the streets or at home. There were 189 casualty reports in 1966.

The number of cars towed off streets hit 298 in 1967, against 202 in 1966.

The summary, prepared by Patrolman William A. Devon, also showed these activities in December: Radio transmissions, 760; arrests, 77; casualties, 23; accidents, 90; injured, 19; missing persons, 5; stolen cars, 5; thefts, 43; vandalism, 26; burglaries, 14, and towed cars, 22.

Driver Receives 10-Day Detention

James C. Morehead, 16, of 1628 St. George St., cited for driving on a temporary permit unaccompanied by a licensed driver, was placed in detention for 10 days following juvenile traffic hearings Tuesday at the Courthouse in Lisbon.

He was told he will not be releaseed until he pays a $25 fine imposed last fall for a temporary permit violation.

Licenses for four drivers were suspended as follows:

Frank D. Clark, 17, Salineville RD 1, speeding; Scott L. Lundgren, 16, Hartville, passing on a hill, and Carol L. Anderson, 16, Washingtonville, violation of temporary permit, 10 days each, and Theodore F. Cassinger, 17, of 416 S. Broadway, Salem, no muffler, Ohio Highway Patrol to hold license until car has been repaired.

Grace Kidder, 17, of 872 Valley, Ave., was fined $15 for a temporary permit violation.

Allison Gets Third Term In Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Atty. James R. Allison was re-elected president for a third term during a reorganization of the Board of Education Tuesday night.

Terry W. Nash was renamed vice president.

The board granted a four-year contract to Mrs. Ruth Rudloff as clerk. Salary for members was set at $3 a meeting, not to exceed 12 regular meetings a year.

The board agreed to continue regular meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

A temporary appropriation of $245,000 for the first quarter was adopted.

The board employed Richard Lee Howard of Leetonia as an instructor at the sixth grade. He is a graduate of East Liverpool High School and attended Texas A. & M., and now is taking night classes at Youngstown University. His salary will be $2,503 for the remaining 166 days of the current term. He succeeds Mrs. Virgil Hall, who asked for a leave of absence because of illness.

Allison announced committees and building assignments.

Mayor Robert Harding was granted use of the high school auditorium for a public meeting Jan. 16 of the Metropolitan Housing Authority. A federal representative will discuss low-cost housing.

Youth To Face Jury On Burglary Charge

LISBON — Donald Boso, 18, of Centre Ave., Ganders Flats, was bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury Wednesday in Southwest Court following a preliminary hearing on a charge of burglary.

He and Floyd Gilmore, 19, of Lisbon RD 2, are accused of breaking into the Buckeye Beverage Store on N. Beaver St. Christmas night. They pleaded not guilty at arraignment Dec. 29 before Judge J. L. MacDonald in Southwest Court.

The hearing for Gilmore was continued until Friday at 3 p.m. because his counsel was unavailable yesterday.

Shafer Leaves To Recuperate In Virgin Islands

HARRISBURG (AP) — The governor, hospitalized for four days last week by a chest cold, will leave today to continue his recuperation in warmer climate, the Virgin Islands.

Shafer and his wife intend to take a state plane from Indiantown Gap to New York City, where they will board Pan-American Flight 265 at 5:15 p.m. The plane is scheduled to land at 9:50 p.m. in St. Croix, where the Shafers will be guests for 10 days to two weeks of Ralph M. Paiewonski, governor of the West Indies isles.

The governor will be accompanied also by his legislative secretary, Hugh E. Flaherty, and they will do some work on Shafer's proposed 1968 legislative program.

"They will go over the legislative program and discuss the special messages the governor plans to deliver to the legislature later on," Shafer's press secretary, Jack L. Conmy, said.

Firemen Quell Blaze In Sedan At Lisbon

LISBON — Volunteer firemen believe a short caused a fire Wednesday which damaged the wiring of a 1964 two-door sedan owned by Melvin Stark of 221 E. Pine St.

The fire broke out about 10:35 a. m. as Mrs. Stark drove the car out an alley next to their residence. Firemen said Stark wisely left the hood down until they arrived with extinguishers. They estimated $30 to $50 damage to the ignition system.

Auto Crashes Drop In 1967

East Liverpool recorded 798 auto mishaps during 1967, a drop of 13 from the 811 in 1966, it was shown today in the annual summary of police department activities.

Two persons were killed in traffic last year, compared with three in 1966. The number of injured hit 161, including 23 pedestrians. In the preceding year, 153 were hurt in traffic, including 33 pedestrians.

The department logged 9,293 radio transmissions in 1967, compared with 8,475 in 1966. There were 865 arrests, including 40 cited for driving while intoxicated and nine arrested for being in physical control of a vehicle while intoxicated. There were 858 arrests in 1966, with 34 charged with driving while intoxicated and four cited for physical control.

Last year saw 75 car thefts, 169 burglaries, 321 thefts and 348 cases of vandalism. In 1966, there were 53 stolen cars, 115 burglaries, 250 thefts and 264 cases of vandalism. The department listed 60 missing persons in 1967, against 39 in 1966. It filed 217 casualty reports on persons injured or taken ill while on the streets or at home. There were 189 casualty reports in 1966.

The number of cars towed off streets hit 298 in 1967, against 202 in 1966.

The summary, prepared by Patrolman William A. Devon, also showed these activities in December: Radio transmissions, 760; arrests, 77; casualties, 23; accidents, 90; injured, 19; missing persons, 5; stolen cars, 5; thefts, 43; vandalism, 26; burglaries, 14, and towed cars, 22.

Driver Receives 10-Day Detention

James C. Morehead, 16, of 1628 St. George St., cited for driving on a temporary permit unaccompanied by a licensed driver, was placed in detention for 10 days following juvenile traffic hearings Tuesday at the Courthouse in Lisbon.

He was told he will not be releaseed until he pays a $25 fine imposed last fall for a temporary permit violation.

Licenses for four drivers were suspended as follows:

Frank D. Clark, 17, Salineville RD 1, speeding; Scott L. Lundgren, 16, Hartville, passing on a hill, and Carol L. Anderson, 16, Washingtonville, violation of temporary permit, 10 days each, and Theodore F. Cassinger, 17, of 416 S. Broadway, Salem, no muffler, Ohio Highway Patrol to hold license until car has been repaired.

Grace Kidder, 17, of 872 Valley Ave., was fined $15 for a temporary permit violation.

Allison Gets Third Term In Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Atty. James R. Allison was re-elected president for a third term during a reorganization of the Board of Education Tuesday night.

Terry W. Nash was renamed vice president.

The board granted a four-year contract to Mrs. Ruth Rudloff as clerk. Salary for members was set at $3 a meeting, not to exceed 12 regular meetings a year.

The board agreed to continue regular meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

A temporary appropriation of $245,000 for the first quarter was adopted.

The board employed Richard Lee Howard of Leetonia as an instructor at the sixth grade. He is a graduate of East Liverpool High School and attended Texas A. & M., and now is taking night classes at Youngstown University. His salary will be $2,503 for the remaining 106 days of the current term. He succeeds Mrs. Virgil Hall, who asked for a leave of absence because of illness.

Allison announced committees and building assignments.

Mayor Robert Harding was granted use of the high school auditorium for a public meeting Jan. 18 of the Metropolitan Housing Authority. A federal representative will discuss low-cost housing.

Youth To Face Jury On Burglary Charge

LISBON — Donald Boso, 18, of Centre Ave., Ganders Flats, was bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury Wednesday in Southwest Court following a preliminary hearing on a charge of burglary.

He and Floyd Gilmore, 19, of Lisbon RD 2, are accused of breaking into the Buckeye Beverage Store on N. Beaver St. Christmas night. They pleaded not guilty at arraignment Dec. 29 before Judge J. L. MacDonald in Southwest Court.

The hearing for Gilmore was continued until Friday at 3 p.m. because his counsel was unavailable yesterday.

Shafer Leaves To Recuperate In Virgin Islands

HARRISBURG (AP) — The governor, hospitalized for four days last week by a chest cold, will leave today to continue his recuperation in warmer climate, the Virgin Islands.

Shafer and his wife intend to take a state plane from Indiantown Gap to New York City, where they will board Pan-American Flight 265 at 5:15 p.m. The plane is scheduled to land at 9:50 p.m. in St. Croix, where the Shafers will be guests for 10 days to two weeks of Ralph M. Paiewonski, governor of the West Indies isles.

The governor will be accompanied also by his legislative secretary, Hugh E. Flaherty, and they will do some work on Shafer's proposed 1968 legislative program.

"They will go over the legislative program and discuss the special messages the governor plans to deliver to the legislature later on," Shafer's press secretary, Jack L. Conmy, said.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: I recently had a broken arm and believe you me it was a bad break. Carrying the heavy cast against my body was almost unbearable and it made my ribs sore, so. . .

My wife made me a small pillow. I put it inside my sling next to my ribs. Saved the sore spots there.

When my neck got tired, I picked up that little old pillow — it was only about 6"x10" — and put it on the back of my neck where my sling cut.

At night, I put that pillow on my chest. As I turned over I moved it so it would be between the cast and my body.

F. B. A.

I met this man while his arm was in a sling and he showed me how he used the little pillow. He also showed me that when he was tired of holding his arm up while he was sitting in a chair, he could put the pillow on his knee and lay the heavy cast on it.

Let's hope you don't. . .but if any of you folks break an arm you might try it.

Baby pillows are great for this and you can buy them at the dime store for less than a dollar. These pillows can be cut in half to make tiny pillows. HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I've found a remarkable way to save that large roll of leftover Christmas paper!

First I remove all the paper and reroll it by hand, kinda tight. Then I put it inside the cardboard roll. . .

I know, after I go to this extra effort, my wrapping paper will be as good as new when I need it next year.

MRS. MURPHY.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I believe your name should be Minerva and your family must be saints to put up with all your various experiments.

Thank you for your past assistance and keep those hints coming.

MRS. J. C. HARRIS.

-:-

I looked up Minerva and she was the ancient Roman goddess of wisdom, technical skill and invention. So thanks for the compliments, Mrs. Harris, but now that the holidays are over, I think the only one that applies to me is "ancient." At least that's the way I feel right now!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I just got the greatest idea so I'm sitting right down to pass it on to you and your readers.

I lost two pairs of short gloves this past summer and regretted having to buy more.

While looking through my glove drawer I ran across three perfectly good pairs of elbow-length, shirred gloves I hadn't worn in ages. So I cut them off allowing for a hem, then made a running-finish stitch by hand just like the ready-made ones.

Presto! Three new pairs of gloves.

MRS. C. G. FARRIS.

DEAR HELOISE: Can you tell me the proper and easiest way to grate orange and lemon rinds?

J. R.

Dear J. R.: My way may not be the proper way or the easiest way, but the method I like best (and have used that last "hundred years") is to grate them whole.

This means pick the lemon up as it comes from the refrigerator, UNCUT, and grate the entire peel from the outside.

Now, naturally, you are going to have the lemon itself left. This can always be cut and squeezed to use for juice.

First Negro Named To Top Position In Ohio Education

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Robert O. Greer, 52, a schoolteacher and administrator in Gary, Ind., since 1949, has become the first Negro named to a top position in the Ohio Department of Education.

Greer was named Wednesday to the newly created post of assistant superintendent for urban education at a yearly salary of $18,720. He will be in charge of carrying out new state programs to help educationally and culturally deprived children in urban areas.

The appointment was approved by the State Board of Education, which also named John A. McKnight, a book company executive in Columbus, to be director of the new division of School District Organization. His salary will be $16,328.

The board, holding its organizational meeting, elected new officers, setting the stage for a woman to become president for the first time in 1969.

Edward C. Ames, a Toledo glass company executive, was promoted from vice president to president for 1968, in accordance with tradition of the board.

Mrs. Jeanette S. Wagner, a Chagrin Falls housewife, was elected vice president, putting her in line to become the board's first woman president if tradition is followed.

Greer, recommended for the new post by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Martin Essex, will take over his new duties Feb. 5. A native of West Virginia, he has degrees from Bluefield State College in West Virginia and Ohio State University, where he is presently working on his Ph.D.

A state commission on urban school development is being organized to work with Greer in studying the needs of large city schools.

Essex announced appointment of a task force, headed by John M. Parsons, director of school finance, to make a comprehensive evaluation of the Little Hoover Commission's recommendations on school operations in Ohio.

'Lord With Us,' GI Says After Attack By Reds

By RICHARD MERRON
Associated Press Photographer

LANDING ZONE BURT, Vietnam (AP) — Sgt. Mark Ridey and his 12 men were caught in the middle, 450 yards from their lines, when 2,500 enemy soldiers hurled themselves at this American infantry post in the bloodiest Communist violation of the New Year's truce.

"The Lord was with us. I can think of no other reason that we came through," said Ridey, a soft-spoken Texan from San Antonio. Six of his men were wounded, but none was killed.

Ridey led his 12-man patrol out of the landing zone perimeter near the Cambodian border at 8 p.m. Monday night, 10 hours before the allied cease-fire expired and five hours before the end of the Viet Cong truce period, to set up an ambush against any enemy offensive that might develop.

Three hours later, four battalions of North Vietnamese regulars and Viet Cong guerrillas began repeated attacks against this field position of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division's 3rd Brigade some 60 miles northwest of Saigon.

The first charge came two hours before the Viet Cong's truce ended at 1 a.m. Tuesday, and the enemy assaults continued until after dawn.

The U.S. commanders said 274 of the enemy were killed and five captured, while American casualties were 23 killed and 153 wounded.

"We got set up in our ambush position about 450 meters east of the perimeter and then I heard their rounds hitting the brigade," Ridey said.

The enemy followed the mortar barrage with a ground attack, right past Ridey.

"We saw three NVA (North Vietnamese soldiers) coming from the direction of the perimeter and I gave the order to open up. We got them," the sergeant continued.

"Then I saw another two heading toward the perimeter. I threw a grenade and blew them apart. Another one came, and we shot him, but before he died he crawled over to his RPG (rocket launcher) and shot off a round toward the perimeter.

"An NVA came trotting by and one of my men opened up with his M16 on full automatic and split him."

It wasn't all one way, though. "Several rifle grenades came in on us and wounded half my men," Ridey said.

As the enemy regrouped for another attack, Ridey said he "could hear a hell of a lot of movement. I estimated from 250 to 350 NVA in my general area."

He radioed this information back to the command post and the brigade commander, Col. Leonard Daems of Bozeman, Mont., told him to call in strikes from circling U.S. warplanes.

The sergeant called the strikes in close.

"One NVA kept firing at our helicopters," Ridey said. "I thought he was about 25 meters away but when I called strikes on him, and he moved, he turned out to be only 10 meters away."

Ridey and the patrol remained clinging to the earth, calling in air and artillery strikes until 9 a.m. Tuesday, when the enemy broke contact.

A company of infantrymen came out to escort Ridey and his battered patrol back to the perimeter.

"Man, was I happy to see them," the sergeant said. "I was frightened, but I tried not to show it to my men."

Col. Daems said he was going to recommend Ridey for a medal. "He did a fantastic job," Daems said.

'Lord With Us,' GI Says After Attack By Reds

By RICHARD MERRON
Associated Press Photographer

LANDING ZONE BURT, Vietnam (AP) — Sgt. Mark Ridey and his 12 men were caught in the middle, 450 yards from their lines, when 2,500 enemy soldiers hurled themselves at this American infantry post in the bloodiest Communist violation of the New Year's truce.

"The Lord was with us. I can think of no other reason that we came through," said Ridey, a soft-spoken Texan from San Antonio. Six of his men were wounded, but none was killed.

Ridey led his 12-man patrol out of the landing zone perimeter near the Cambodian border at 8 p.m. Monday night, 10 hours before the allied cease-fire expired and five hours before the end of the Viet Cong truce period, to set up an ambush against any enemy offensive that might develop.

Three hours later, four battalions of North Vietnamese regulars and Viet Cong guerrillas began repeated attacks against this field position of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division's 3rd Brigade some 60 miles northwest of Saigon.

The first charge came two hours before the Viet Cong's truce ended at 1 a.m. Tuesday, and the enemy assaults continued until after dawn.

The U.S. commanders said 374 of the enemy were killed and five captured, while American casualties were 23 killed and 153 wounded.

"We got set up in our ambush position about 450 meters east of the perimeter and then I heard their rounds hitting the brigade," Ridey said.

The enemy followed the mortar barrage with a ground attack, right past Ridey.

"We saw three NVA (North Vietnamese soldiers) coming from the direction of the perimeter and I gave the order to open up. We got them," the sergeant continued.

"Then I saw another two heading toward the perimeter. I threw a grenade and blew them apart. Another one came, and we shot him, but before he died he crawled over to his RPG (rocket launcher) and shot off a round toward the perimeter.

"An NVA came trotting by and one of my men opened up with his M16 on full automatic and split him."

It wasn't all one way, though. "Several rifle grenades came in on us and wounded half my men," Ridey said.

As the enemy regrouped for another attack, Ridey said he "could hear a hell of a lot of movement. I estimated from 250 to 350 NVA in my general area."

He radioed this information back to the command post and the brigade commander, Col. Leonard Daems of Bozeman, Mont., told him to call in strikes from circling U.S. warplanes.

The sergeant called the strikes in close.

"One NVA kept firing at our helicopters," Ridey said. "I thought he was about 25 meters away but when I called strikes on him, and he moved, he turned out to be only 10 meters away."

Ridey and the patrol remained clinging to the earth, calling in air and artillery strikes until 9 a.m. Tuesday, when the enemy broke contact.

A company of infantrymen came out to escort Ridey and his battered patrol back to the perimeter.

"Man, was I happy to see them," the sergeant said. "I was frightened, but I tried not to show it to my men."

Col. Daems said he was going to recommend Ridey for a medal. "He did a fantastic job," Daems said.

Business Figure Dies

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — Benjamin C. Keator, 83, who retired in 1953 as general manager of the John Deere Co., died Tuesday. Deere & Co., as the firm is now known, grew into a worldwide maker of farm machinery after Keator's great-grandfather, an Illinois blacksmith, invented the John Deere moldboard plow a century ago.

900 Teachers Slated To End Strike Friday

WATERBURY, Conn. (AP) — Some 900 teachers under court order to justify their strike against the city school system are expected to end the walkout Friday and let lawyers resolve the dispute.

The teachers went on strike Wednesday and the board of education subsequently closed the city's 26 schools which have a total enrollment of about 17,000 pupils.

The teachers took a 640-60 strike vote Tuesday after they said city officials had failed to honor a recently negotiated contract that went into effect Jan. 1.

At the end of a full day of mediated talks Wednesday with school board officials, leaders of the Waterbury Teachers Association agreed to encourage members to return Friday to their classrooms and to allow the courts to resolve the dispute.

Meanwhile, at the request of city officials, Superior Court ordered that the teachers' group justify their strike action before the court Friday at 2 p.m. or face a temporary injunction forcing them back to work.

To Seek Re-Election

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Homer E. Hayes, who has been Lawrence County clerk of courts since 1924, announced Wednesday he will seek re-election to a 13th straight term. Hayes, in his 70s, is a Republican.

Split Studied In Precincts

The Hancock County Court of Commissioners has informed Weirton Council it is considering splitting a number of voting precincts and asked city officials to meet with them for a discussion of the matter.

The proposal is pursuant to a request by the city of Weirton filed earlier asking commissioners to make no changes in precincts there until wards in the city are redistricted.

The commissioners reported they are considering changes in the precincts after the primary election. They presently all operate within the limits set by state law, which specifies each precinct "shall be comprised of no fewer than 300 and no more than 800 registered voters."

The county court had considered changing the precincts a number of years ago and at that time Weirton officials requested no changes be made until redistricting was complete.

Commissioners said redistricting of wards, making precincts and wards coincide, would do away with the need for an extra set of books in the voter registration office.

The commissioners met in the Courthouse at New Cumberland, with Jack Evans presiding.

William J. Moore was appointed commissioner of accounts for a two-year term to succeed Frank Pietranton. The appointment was effective Jan. 1.

Commissioners set dates on which they will convene as a board of equalization to review assessments throughout the county. The dates are: Grant district — Feb. 5-7; Clay — Feb. 8, 9, 13, and Butler — Feb. 14-16. A roundup day for all districts will be held Feb. 19.

All hearings will be held at 7 p. m. in the Courthouse, with the exception of one on Feb. 5 which was set for 2 p. m.

The commissioners will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the Courthouse to open bids for the demolition of the present County Jail building at New Cumberland.

The court's secretary was instruted to write banks serving as depositories for county funds, asking them to send representatives to the commission to discuss ways funds can collect interest while they are deposited. The meeting will be held Jan. 9.

A request from the office of the county court clerk for $950 to repair and rebind record books was approved.

Ratify Contract

CLEVELAND (AP)—Electrical workers ratified a new contract with the Northeast Ohio Communication Contractors Association Wednesday, providing $1.65-an-hour raises over three years for radio and television installers and maintenance men in the construction industry.

About 100 members of local 1377, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, approved the contract. Workers who install new facilities in high-rise buildings will get a $2.20-an-hour hike over the three years. Their old rate was $5.50 an hour.

In Speakers Bureau

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Conservative Union says it has enlisted Rep. John M. Ashbrook, R-Ohio, and several other conservative figures for service in its newly organized speakers bureau.

Petitioners Seek Creation Of New Service District

Creation of a fourth public service district in Hancock County has been proposed to the county commissioners.

The present districts are Oakland, New Manchester and Lawrenceville.

Miss Callie Tsapis, Weirton attorney, has presented a petition bearing 283 signatures requesting the formation of the Grant Public Service District for financing and constructing a public water system. The district would include all of Grant that is not incorporated, not already in such a district, and not served by the Newell Water Co.

A protest meeting will be held Feb. 6 at 7 p. m. in the Courthouse at New Cumberland.

Mrs. Hazel Douglas and Mrs. Mary Graham, both of the Newell area, appeared for the presentation of the petitions.

Yule Seal Drive Reaches 90% Of Goal For County

LISBON — The Columbiana County Public Health League Christmas Seal campaign last weekend reached $29,090 or nearly 90 per cent of the $32,500 goal.

Salem Township with collections of $1,423 — approximately 96 per cent of its $1,480 quota —leads the collection areas.

A summary follows with quotas in parentheses:

Fairfield Township — $2,827 ($3,245); Lisbon area — $2,562 ($2,850); Liverpool & St. Clair Townships — $7,963 ($8,900); Middleton Township — $406 ($475).

Perry Township — $6,797 ($7,000); Unity Township, $2,746 ($3,200); Washington Township —$546 ($600); Western area — $1,828 ($2,250); Yellow Creek Township — $1,841 ($2,500), and late returns from previous campaign, $149.

In Speakers Bureau

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Conservative Union says it has enlisted Rep. John M. Ashbrook, R-Ohio, and several other conservative figures for service in its newly organized speakers bureau.

Petitioners Seek Creation Of New Service District

Creation of a fourth public service district in Hancock County has been proposed to the county commissioners.

The present districts are Oakland, New Manchester and Lawrenceville.

Miss Callie Tsapis, Weirton attorney, has presented a petition bearing 263 signatures requesting the formation of the Grant Public Service District for financing and constructing a public water system. The district would include all of Grant that is not incorporated, not already in such a district, and not served by the Newell Water Co.

A protest meeting will be held Feb. 6 at 7 p. m. in the Courthouse at New Cumberland.

Mrs. Hazel Douglas and Mrs. Mary Graham, both of the Newell area, appeared for the presentation of the petitions.

Record Attendance

Balance Of $5,716 Listed In Report By Fair Board

LISBON — Columbiana County's 122nd annual County Fair last August made enough money to pay off $4,100 due on a new barn and leave a balance of $5,716.

These are the high points of the financial report covering the five-day exposition which drew a record attendance — an estimated 73,000.

Mrs. Velma Cope of Lisbon, secretary, reports receipts were $69,871, which, with a Dec. 1, 1966, balance of $1,862, made $70,733 available.

Expenditures were $65,017, leaving a balance of $5,716 as of Nov. 30.

OVER $16,000 was received in the form of aid from the state and county. The state furnished $1,000 for Junior Fair activities and $11,838 from the Ohio Fairs Fund. The county put in $3,300.

Other receipts were:

Gate admissions, including autos, $15,917; Columbiana County Agriculture Society membership fees, $874; concession space, including rides, $8,574; concessionaire's deposit for rides for 1968 fair, $2,000; entry fees, $856; speed (horse racing) fees, $3,025; racing programs, $286.

Rental of grounds and barns, $3,451; interest, $343; collections from previous year, $2,714; advertising, $2,080; sale of utilities, $29; outstanding 1966 checks recharged, $65; investment redeposited, $13,782; miscellaneous, $75, and change for secretary and treasurer redeposited, $650.

THE LARGEST single disbursement was $14,910 for horse races — $13,485 in purses and $1,425 for other expenses. A summary of other disbursements follows:

Salaries and payroll, $6,983; judges, $397; expense of directors, $1,508; utilities, $1,747; office expenses, $269; insurance, $513; dues, $50; advertising, $1,261; printing and supplies, $1,458.

Premiums, senior division, $3,770, and Junior Fair, $1,553; other junior fair expenses, $1,116; special attractions, $6,339; other fair expenses, $1,759; miscellaneous, $135; investment of surplus funds before fair, $13,792; change for secretary and treasurer, $650.

Maintenance and repairs, $2,080; capital investment, $300; race fees refund, $30 bills of previous year, $347, and payment on loan and interest to build new barn, $4,100.

Jailer Scheduled To Testify Found Beaten To Death

TIERRA AMARILLA, N.M. (AP) — A rural county jailer, scheduled to testify at the trial of 20 persons charged with making an armed raid on a courthouse, has been found beaten to death.

The body of Eulogio Salazar, 54, was found Wednesday 15 miles west of Tierra Amarilla in northern New Mexico.

"He was a brother officer," said New Mexico State Police Chief Joe Black. "Let's get the guy that killed him. It was the worst beating I have seen given in 30 years as a police officer."

Salazar, who weighed only about 100 pounds, had been shot in the face and chest during the June 5 raid on the Rio Arriba County courthouse in Tierra Amarilla.

An autopsy is to be performed and an inquest held in Salazar's death.

The Pony Express was in operation for about 18 months.

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson took his wife and daughter and son-in-law, Luci and Patrick Nugent, Wednesday night to see one of his favorite shows—"Hello Dolly."

The roadshow production in Austin, 65 miles from the LBJ Ranch, starred Dorothy Lamour.

Addressing the President and his companions from the stage, Miss Lamour said: "I appreciate the standing ovation of the audience but when I saw you there, Mr. President, that is the greatest honor I ever hope to have in my life."

There was further applause when she mentioned that she has an 18-year-old son in the Marines.

—:—

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Efrem Zimbalist Sr., said Wednesday he plans to quit in may as director of the Curtis Institute of Music.

The world-famous 78-year-old violinist has been associated with the Philadelphia school for 39 years and has been its director since 1941.

Zimbalist is the father of TV and film star, Efrem Zimbalist Jr.

—:—

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Donald Lane looked like a detective, police say, sitting in his unmarked car complete with two-way radio, shotgun, red light and siren. Even twin aerials were mounted on it.

Lane, a 22-year-old bachelor, drove a lonely patrol through metropolitan Los Angeles for at least a year, police said today —until his arrest.

When he went to a garage Tuesday to pick up his "squad car," real police booked Lane on forgery charges resulting from a false order for badges for the Covina Police Department. He later was released on bond.

Police said Lane made use of police radio bands, picking up the call numbers of an undercover unit not on duty, and carried on brief conversations with other units but never caused trouble "as far as we know."

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The dream of many a movie maker is coming true for Robert Aldrich: he's acquiring his own studio.

The rotund producer-director of "The Dirty Dozen," "Whatever Happened to Baby Jane?" and other hits announced Wednesday he has bought the site where Mary Pickford first built a studio in 1913.

Old Hollywood hands can't recall another producer-director building his own studio in many years. The purchase price was not disclosed.

An 'Honest' Thief

LAKEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Sheriff's officers in this Los Angeles suburb received a plain envelope in the mail containing $255.

"With regard to the theft at Winchell's Donut Shop," it said, "this is the first time I have ever done anything like this. Here is what is left."

The note Wednesday was unsigned.

Between $600 and $800 was taken from a safe in the doughnut shop the night of Dec. 27.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The dream of many a movie maker is coming true for Robert Aldrich: he's acquiring his own studio.

The rotund producer-director of "The Dirty Dozen," "Whatever Happened to Baby Jane?" and other hits announced Wednesday he has bought the site where Mary Pickford first built a studio in 1913.

Old Hollywood hands can't recall another producer-director building his own studio in many years. The purchase price was not disclosed.

An 'Honest' Thief

LAKEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Sheriff's officers in this Los Angeles suburb received a plain envelope in the mail containing $255.

"With regard to the theft at Winchell's Donut Shop," it said, "this is the first time I have ever done anything like this. Here is what is left."

The note Wednesday was unsigned.

Between $600 and $800 was taken from a safe in the doughnut shop the night of Dec. 27.

Jailer Scheduled To Testify Found Beaten To Death

TIERRA AMARILLA, N.M. (AP) — A rural county jailer, scheduled to testify at the trial of 20 persons charged with making an armed raid on a courthouse, has been found beaten to death.

The body of Eulogio Salazar, 54, was found Wednesday 15 miles west of Tierra Amarilla in northern New Mexico.

"He was a brother officer," said New Mexico State Police Chief Joe Black. "Let's get the guy that killed him. It was the worst beating I have seen given in 30 years as a police officer."

Salazar, who weighed only about 100 pounds, had been shot in the face and chest during the June 5 raid on the Rio Arriba County courthouse in Tierra Amarilla.

An autopsy is to be performed and an inquest held in Salazar's death.

The Pony Express was in operation for about 18 months.

Owners of the Pittsburgh Penguins are hopeful of getting crowds to average 8,000 by the end of the season. So far the average has been 6,791.

A sellout was hoped for Saturday night when Detroit and superstar Gordie Howe were in town, but the attendance was only 9,041.

Hockey fans are a distinctive lot. They are not afraid to make the targets of their abuse or praise (mostly the former) hear them, be they players or officials. Saturday night Ken Schinkel, who has played very well on other occasions, had a bad game and was the chief target of the fans' abuse. Gordie Howe was unimpressive, not seeming to make his presence felt on the ice. Detroit is a smooth club, however, not given to showmanship. Only bad boy Howie Young stands out as a personality.

MIDLAND'S Norm Vanlier of St. Francis made the all-tourney team at the Quaker City Tourney, as did teammate Bill Snodgrass from Mercer and Duquesne's Bill Zopf from Monaca.

JOHN ROACH of Oak Glen, who had hit on 17 of 20 foul shots prior to Tuesday night, was ranked third among OVAC AAA schools in this category. Jim Carnes of the Golden Bears, with 20 of 25, was fifth.

THE PLANNED New Orleans stadium, to have a roof and capacity of 80,000, will also have giant TV screens, so fans can see instant replays of the action, just like on TV at home. And if you think the next thing is commercials, the Astrodome is ahead of you, as there are commercials on the message board there between every inning now

THE TROUBLESOME knee injury bothering Don May of Dayton was suffered in a "pick-up" game at Athens (Ohio) this summer.

INDIANA basketball coach Lou Watson last year started carrying two lucky pennies and the Hoosiers tied for the title. Watson lent them to football coach Johnny Pont this fall and Pont took his team to the Rose Bowl. Watson took them back at the start of the season, but was to send them from the Dallas tournament, where Indiana was playing, to the Rose Bowl, and Pont was to get them back to him in time for Tuesday night's game in Detroit. The pennies must have gotten lost in the mail, or maybe Watson lost them beforehand, as the Hoosiers not only dropped the Rose Bowl but also all three basketball games.

BRIGHAM YOUNG has a Finn, a Canadian and a Mexican on its basketball squad. The Canadian is 6-11, the Finn 6-7. They also have a 6-9 freshman from Finland who is rated a great prospect.

Harding Better Than 1-5 Record

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

On Oct. 14 the East Liverpool High School football team, unbeaten in four games, made its first road trip of the season, to Warren, and dropped a 22-0 de- of the season, to Warren, and dropped a 22-0 decicision to Warren Western Reserve.

Tomorrow night the East Liverpool High School basketball team, unbeaten in six games, makes its first road trip of the season, to Warren, for a Big 8 opener with a Warren Harding team that is much tougher than its 1-5 record.

Potter coach Clint McConnell sees no similarity between the two situations, however. He notes that the Potter cagers have scrimmaged away from home several times, including four times over the holidays, and that road games were not particularly tough for East Liverpool a year ago. He expects numerous local fans to be in attendance, which will negate the effect of a hostile crowd.

"Of course the home court is an advantage," McConnell says, "shooting at your own baskets is always easier." But he worries more about Warren itself than the location of the game.

The Panthers are not without size, starring Tom Cope and Gary Whitefield, both 6-4½; Norm Persin, 6-2; Greg Williams, 6-0; and Joe Mayo, 5-8. Top reserve is Greg Smith, 6-4. Cope is the top scorer on the team, with all the other starters averaging in the double figures. Cope, Williams and Whitefield are lettermen for coach Jack Gysegem's quintet. Mayo and Smith are juniors, the others seniors. The Panthers are averaging 66.8 ppg, but have given up 75.5. Warren has played a very tough schedule so far, with losses coming to Canton Timken 87-74. Barberton 71-64, Massillon 62-47, Sharon 88-74 and Boardman 77-72 in overtime. The lone win was 70-68 over Warren Western Reserve.

McConnell says he plans some changes. He predicts that even if the Potters do everything right they won't win by more than 10 and that many mistakes have to be eliminated if East Liverpool is to fare well the rest of the season.

John Johnson, who did such a good job in stopping Bellaire St. Johns' Allan Hornyak in the season opener, will start, and McConnell may have him dog Williams. Mitchell Jones, Jerry Christian, Bill Montgomery and Earl Diddle are expected to round out the starting five, as Bruce Christian and Mike McVay have not gotten into form yet following their football injuries.

Saturday night's foe at the Memorial Auditorium, Youngstown East, cannot be taken lightly either. Lou Rivello's team is 4-3 and is picked as the team to beat this season for the Youngstown city championship. The Golden Bears won the Meadville (Pa.) Tournament last week, beating Altoona Bishop Guilfoyle 55-49 and Punxsatawney 54-51 in overtime. Other wins came over Woodrow Wilson 62-32 and Ursuline 60-51. Losses were to Massillon 57-48, Niles 56-53 and Campbell Memorial 58-52.

Mervin Teague, 6-5 brother of suspended Youngstown State star Willie Teague, scored 35 points at Meadville. He is a junior. Other starters are all seniors, 6-3 Dan Smith, 6-0 Ray Lweis, 5-9 Chuch Brown and 5-8 Rufus Humphrey. All but Smith are lettermen. Rivello also has two good reserves, 6-0 Lorenzo Mitchell and 6-0 Mike Harvey.

Getting Home Is Battle For New Jersey Team

By The Associated Press

The home team supposedly has the advantage in basketball, but the New Jersey Americans had a terrible time pressing it home. In fact, they almost didn't get home to press it.

The Americans, who lost 97-96 in New Orleans Tuesday night, were scheduled to leave the New Orleans Airport at 1 a.m. to return home for Wednesday night's American Basketball Association game with Kentucky.

But fog delayed their departure until 4:45 p.m., and by the time they were ready to take the court at the Teaneck Armory it was 10:30 two hours past the scheduled starting time.

Once the game started, the weary Americans rolled to an 18-point lead, then they faded and Kentucky closed to within two points, 113-111, with nine seconds left. But Tony Jackson then clinched it with two foul shots, and the Americans had a 115-111 victory and a chance to get some sleep.

Walt Simon led the Americans with 30 points and Dan Anderson added 28. Louie Dampier scored 38 and Jim Ligon 27 for Kentucky.

In other ABA action, Houston edged Denver 89-83 and Anaheim ripped Indiana 122-111.

Houston, which led 71-69 after three periods, took advantage of a seven-minute span of the fourth quarter in which Denver failed to score a field goal, to pick up its victory. Willie Frazier paced Houston with 24 points and Larry Jones led Denver with 19.

Anaheim, picking up its sixth victory in seven games, was led by Ben Warley's 27 points. Fred Lewis of Indiana led all scorers with 37 points.

Rockets Edge Falcons In Overtime Thriller

By The Associated Press

Toledo is off to a fast start in the Mid-American Conference basketball race. The Rockets upped their MAC record to 2-0 Wednesday night with a 73-69 overtime victory over highly touted Bowling Green.

Toledo, playing catch-up, trailed by 10 points with 14 points left, but rallied to tie it at 64-64 at the end of regulation. Bob Miller was the difference in the extra period, scoring four of Toledo's nine points.

Marshall, which was MAC runner-up to Toledo last year and is a top contender again this season, blasted Miami of Ohio 83-63 for a 2-1 MAC record.

Elsewhere on the Ohio scene, Dayton reached the .500 mark with an 83-80 squeaker over Xavier of Cincinnati, and ninth-ranked S. Bonaventure toppled Kent State 80-63 at Kent.

And Wittenberg, once unbeatable on its home court, lost to Westminster of Pennsylvania 77-69. It was only the Tigers' sixth defeat in their last 103 games at Springfield.

In the only other games involving Ohio teams, Findlay raked St. Francis of Indiana 126-100, Central State whipped Otterbein 90-77, and Pikeville of Kentuck edged Rio Grande 121-117 in overtime.

Toledo's victory was its fifth straight. The Rockets got 26 points from John Brisker and 20 from Miller. Bowling Green was paced by big Walt Piatkowski with 21 points.

Marshall got double figuring scoring from four of its starters, led by Jim Davidson with 22 points, in its easy victory over Miami. But Miami's Fred Foster was the game's higher scorer, netting 20 points, 25 of them in the second half.

Miami played without its second leading scorer, Phil Snow, who has pneumonia.

Don May and Bob Hooper led Dayton past Xavier to give the Flyers a 5-5 season record. The game was tied nine times with Dayton taking its biggest margin, five points, with only 25 seconds remaining. May dumped in 30 points and Hooper added 26. Xavier, now 3-8, got 23 points from Bob Quick and 22 from Tom Schlager.

St. Bonaventure's 6-11 sophomore center, Bob Lanier, scored 33 points as the Bonnies hit 62.8 per cent of their floor shots in downing Kent. Doug Grayson was high for Kent with 17 points.

Yogis Unanimously Back E. Liverpool Both Nights

After taking two weeks off for the holidays, the Review Cage Yogis are back to guessing, and by the splits this week it looks like there is more guessing than predicting.

Five of the area scholastic games picked show unanimous choices by the seers, but the other five resulted in 3-2 splits. East Liverpool was a unanimous pick — both over Warren Harding on Friday and Youngstown East on Saturday — though some pickers had misgivings about Friday's game. Beaver was picked by everyone over Midland Friday, and Saturday's games found everyone liking Toronto over Southern Local and East Palestine over Columbiana.

Ross Nunzo and leader Tom Futhey picked against the Bulldogs in Friday's game, however, going with homestanding Leetonia. Bob Duffy and Bob Shaffer took Oak Glen against Beaver Local and Turk Pierce and Nunzo went with Stanton over Jefferson Union.

The latter pair liked Leetonia over Lisbon on Saturday and Duffy and Futhey took Springfield over Wellsville.

Knicks Defeat 76ers After Eleven Losses

By The Associated Press

The New York Knickerbockers did something they haven't done in almost 20 months, and the Boston Celtics didn't do something they haven't done in 17 years.

New York, which hadn't won a National Basketball Association game from the 76ers in Philadelphia since March 10, 1965, did it Wednesday night, 129-115. The losing streak had reached 11 games.

The Celtics averted losing five straight for the first time since the 1950-51 season by beating the Lakers 113-103 in Los Angeles.

In other NBA action, Chicago whipped Baltimore 113-94 and San Diego outlasted St. Louis 126-124 in two overtimes.

Houston edged Denver 89-83, New Jersey nipped Kentucky 115-111 and Anaheim downed Indiana 122-111 in the American Basketball Association.

It look like it was going to be the same old Philadelphia story for the Knicks as they fell behind 16-7 in the first quarter. But then the New York shooters got hot and the Knicks moved to a 23-point advantage, 103-80 after three quarters.

Walt Bellamy and Dick Barnett each scored 30 for the Knicks, who not only snapped their Philadelphia jinx but also beat the 76ers for the first time anywhere since last Jan. 5 at Pittsburgh — a six-game streak.

Wilt Chamberlain led Philadelphia with 39 points. Boston, whch moved to within 2½ games of the first-place 76ers in the Eastern Division, made sure it wasn't going to lose five in a row by holding Los Angeles to just four field goals while racing to a 32-14 first-period lead.

Bailey Howell paced Boston with 30 points and Jerry West led Los Angeles with 27.

Chicago won its third straight and handed Baltimore its third consecutive loss as Bob Boozer scored 24 points, Keith Erickson 23 and Flynn Robinson 22. Rookie Earl Monroe poured in 27 for Baltimore.

On the West Coast, Nick Jones converted a pair of free throws with 13 seconds to go in the second overtime to give San Diego its victory over St. Louis. John Block topped the Rockets with 32. Zelmo Beaty was high for the Hawks with 25.

Harding Better Than 1-5 Record

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

On Oct. 14 the East Liverpool High School football team, unbeaten in four games, made its first road trip of the season, to Warren, and dropped a 22-0 de- of the season, to Warren, and dropped a 22-0 decis- cision to Warren Western Reserve.

Tomorrow night the East Liverpool High School basketball team, unbeaten in six games, makes its first road trip of the season, to Warren, for a Big 8 opener with a Warren Harding team that is much tougher than its 1-5 record.

Potter coach Clint McConnell sees no similarity between the two situations, however. He notes that the Potter cagers have scrimmaged away from home several times, including four times over the holidays, and that road games were not particularly tough for East Liverpool a year ago. He expects numerous local fans to be in attendance, which will negate the effect of a hostile crowd.

"Of course the home court is an advantage," McConnell says, "shooting at your own baskets is always easier." But he worries more about Warren itself than the location of the game.

The Panthers are not without size, starring Tom Cope and Gary Whitefield, both 6-4½; Norm Persin, 6-2; Greg Williams, 6-0; and Joe Mayo, 5-8. Top reserve is Greg Smith, 6-4. Cope is the top scorer on the team, with all the other starters averaging in the double figures. Cope, Williams and Whitefield are lettermen for coach Jack Gysegem's quintet. Mayo and Smith are juniors, the others seniors. The Panthers are averaging 66.8 ppg, but have given up 75.5. Warren has played a very tough schedule so far, with losses coming to Canton Timken 87-74. Barberton 71-64, Massillon 62-47, Sharon 88-74 and Boardman 77-72 in overtime. The lone win was 70-68 over Warren Western Reserve.

McConnell says he plans some changes. He predicts that even if the Potters do everything right they won't win by more than 10 and that many mistakes have to be eliminated if East Liverpool is to fare well the rest of the season.

John Johnson, who did such a good job in stopping Bellaire St. Johns' Allan Hornyak in the season opener, will start, and McConnell may have him dog Williams. Mitchell Jones, Jerry Christian, Bill Montgomery and Earl Diddle are expected to round out the starting five, as Bruce Christian and Mike McVay have not gotten into form yet following their football injuries.

Saturday night's foe at the Memorial Auditorium, Youngstown East, cannot be taken lightly either. Lou Rivello's team is 4-3 and is picked as the team to beat this season for the Youngstown city championship. The Golden Bears won the Meadville (Pa.) Tournament last week, beating Altoona Bishop Guilfoyle 55-49 and Punxsatawney 54-51 in overtime. Other wins came over Woodrow Wilson 62-32 and Ursuline 60-51. Losses were to Massillon 57-48, Niles 56-53 and Campbell Memorial 58-52.

Mervin Teague, 6-5 brother of suspended Youngstown State star Willie Teague, scored 35 points at Meadville. He is a junior. Other starters are all seniors, 6-3 Dan Smith, 6-0 Ray Lweis, 5-9 Chuch Brown and 5-8 Rufus Humphrey. All but Smith are lettermen. Rivello also has two good reserves, 6-0 Lorenzo Mitchell and 6-0 Mike Harvey.

Getting Home Is Battle For New Jersey Team

By The Associated Press

The home team supposedly has the advantage in basketball, but the New Jersey Americans had a terrible time pressing it home. In fact, they almost didn't get home to press it.

The Americans, who lost 97-96 in New Orleans Tuesday night, were scheduled to leave the New Orleans Airport at 1 a.m. to return home for Wednesday night's American Basketball Association game with Kentucky.

But fog delayed their departure until 4:45 p.m., and by the time they were ready to take the court at the Teaneck Armory it was 10:30 two hours past the scheduled starting time.

Once the game started, the weary Americans rolled to an 18-point lead, then they faded and Kentucky closed to within two points, 113-111, with nine seconds left. But Tony Jackson then clinched it with two foul shots, and the Americans had a 115-111 victory and a chance to get some sleep.

Walt Simon led the Americans with 30 points and Dan Anderson added 28. Louie Dampier scored 38 and Jim Ligon 27 for Kentucky.

In other ABA action, Houston edged Denver 89-83 and Anaheim ripped Indiana 122-111.

Houston, which led 71-69 after three periods, took advantage of a seven-minute span of the fourth quarter in which Denver failed to score a field goal, to pick up its victory. Willie Frazier paced Houston with 24 points and Larry Jones led Denver with 19.

Anaheim, picking up its sixth victory in seven games, was led by Ben Warley's 27 points. Fred Lewis of Indiana led all scorers with 37 points.

Knicks Defeat 76ers After Eleven Losses

By The Associated Press

The New York Knickerbockers did something they haven't done in almost 20 months, and the Boston Celtics didn't do something they haven't done in 17 years.

New York, which hadn't won a National Basketball Association game from the 76ers in Philadelphia since March 10, 1965, did it Wednesday night, 129-115. The losing streak had reached 11 games.

The Celtics averted losing five straight for the first time since the 1950-51 season by beating the Lakers 113-103 in Los Angeles.

In other NBA action, Chicago whipped Baltimore 113-94 and San Diego outlasted St. Louis 126-124 in two overtimes.

Houston edged Denver 89-83, New Jersey nipped Kentucky 115-111 and Anaheim downed Indiana 122-111 in the American Basketball Association.

It look like it was going to be the same old Philadelphia story for the Knicks as they fell behind 16-7 in the first quarter. But then the New York shooters got hot and the Knicks moved to a 23-point advantage, 103-80 after three quarters.

Walt Bellamy and Dick Barnett each scored 30 for the Knicks, who not only snapped their Philadelphia jinx but also beat the 76ers for the first time anywhere since last Jan. 5 at Pittsburgh — a six-game streak.

Wilt Chamberlain led Philadelphia with 39 points.

Boston, whch moved to within 2½ games of the first-place 76ers in the Eastern Division, made sure it wasn't going to lose five in a row by holding Los Angeles to just four field goals while racing to a 32-14 first-period lead.

Bailey Howell paced Boston with 30 points and Jerry West led Los Angeles with 27.

Chicago won its third straight and handed Baltimore its third consecutive loss as Bob Boozer scored 24 points, Keith Erickson 23 and Flynn Robinson 22. Rookie Earl Monroe poured in 27 for Baltimore.

On the West Coast, Nick Jones converted a pair of free throws with 13 seconds to go in the second overtime to give San Diego its victory over St. Louis. John Block topped the Rockets with 32. Zelmo Beaty was high for the Hawks with 25.

Named Grid Coach

DURHAM, N.C. (AP)—Jim Root, former star college quarterback at Miami of Ohio and assistant coach at Dartmouth and Yale, was named head football coach Wednesday at the University of New Hampshire, succeeding Joe Uukica.

Rockets Edge Falcons In Overtime Thriller

By The Associated Press

Toledo is off to a fast start in the Mid-American Conference basketball race. The Rockets upped their MAC record to 2-0 Wednesday night with a 73-69 overtime victory over highly touted Bowling Green.

Toledo, playing catch-up, trailed by 10 points with 14 points left, but rallied to tie it at 64-64 at the end of regulation. Bob Miller was the difference in the extra period, scoring four of Toledo's nine points.

Marshall, which was MAC runner-up to Toledo last year and is a top contender again this season, blasted Miami of Ohio 83-63 for a 2-1 MAC record.

Elsewhere on the Ohio scene, Dayton reached the .500 mark with an 83-80 squeaker over Xavier of Cincinnati, and ninth-ranked S. Bonaventure toppled Kent State 80-63 at Kent.

And Wittenberg, once unbeatable on its home court, lost to Westminster of Pennsylvania 77-69. It was only the Tigers' sixth defeat in their last 103 games at Springfield.

In the only other games involving Ohio teams, Findlay raked St. Francis of Indiana 126-100, Central State whipped Otterbein 90-77, and Pikeville of Kentuck edged Rio Grande 121-117 in overtime.

Toledo's victory was its fifth straight. The Rockets got 26 points from John Brisker and 20 from Miller. Bowling Green was paced by big Walt Piatkowski with 21 points.

Marshall got double figuring scoring from four of its starters, led by Jim Davidson with 22 points, in its easy victory over Miami. But Miami's Fred Foster was the game's higher scorer, netting 20 points, 25 of them in the second half.

Miami played without its second leading scorer, Phil Snow, who has pneumonia.

Don May and Bob Hooper led Dayton past Xavier to give the Flyers a 5-5 season record. The game was tied nine times with Dayton taking its biggest margin, five points, with only 25 seconds remaining. May dumped in 30 points and Hooper added 26. Xavier, now 3-8, got 23 points from Bob Quick and 22 from Tom Schlager.

St. Bonaventure's 6-11 sophomore center, Bob Lanier, scored 33 points as the Bonnies hit 62.8 per cent of their floor shots in downing Kent. Doug Grayson was high for Kent with 17 points.

Tht Findlay Oilers ran their record to 8-1 behind the scoring of twins Jim and Jerry Carder. Jim Carder scored 22 points for a career total of 1,725, a Findlay record.

Quits Jets Post

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Donaldson resigned Tuesday as defensive line coach with the New York Jets of the American Football League to take a similar job with the AFL's newest club, the Cincinnati Bengals. Donaldson, 40, a graduate of Ohio State, had been with the Jets the last five seasons.

Tom Butters Named Duke Baseball Coach

DURHAM, N. C. (AP)—Tom Butters, 29, whose professional baseball career was ended by an auto accident while he was en route to spring training with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1955, has been appointed head baseball coach at Duke University.

Duke announced today that he will succeed Jim Bly, who died last fall.

After his injury, Butters became the assistant director of admissions at his alma mater, Ohio Wesleyan University, and headed that school's athletic recruiting program.

Last fall Butters came to Duke as associate for development of the university.

Duke Defeats Davidson, Meets UNC

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Duke and North Carolina already have one thing in common—Vanderbilt—and the Blue Devils are now casting covetous glances at the Tarheels' place in the college basketball Top Ten.

Duke, unranked as yet, boosted its season record to 7-1 Wednesday night with a comeback 89-84 victory over Davidson, which, until last week,, was in the Top Ten itself. North Carolina, No. 3, beat Wake Forest 74-62.

Both clubs' lone defeats were suffered at the hands of Vanderbilt, rated fourth. The first meeting between Duke and North Carolina will come Saturday at Chapel Hill, N.C.

The Blue Devils fought back from a 50-43 deficit early in the first half to their victory.

"As long as we continue to scratch and claw as we have all season, said Vic Bubas, Duke coach, "this bunch will make a good showing against anybody."

Davidson Coach Lefty Driesell added, "If Duke continues to shoot like they did tonight, they can beat anyone in the country."

The Blue Devils outrebounded Davidson 55-33 and Mike Lewis and Dave Golden each had 22 points. North Carolina got 23 points from Rusty Clark, 22, from Charlie Scott and 20 from Larry Miller in downing Wake Forest.

Seventh-ranked Utah boosted its record to 11-1, beating American University 84-77. Merv Jackson had 27 points and Walt Simon had 26 for the Redskins. Ninth-ranked St. Bonaventure, with Bob Lanier scoring 33 points, beat Kent State 80-63, the Bonnies' 10th straight triumph.

New Mexico, No. 10, won its 12th straight, beating Air Force 88-60 with Ron Nelson scored 26 points. Calvin Murphy, second leading scorer in the country, poured in 39 points against Buffalo State, leading Niagara to a 94-79 victory.

The nation's top-ranked small-college team, Kentucky Wesleyan, was knocked off by No. 2, Evansville 71-64. The Kentucky club fought back from a seven-point halftime deficit to take a brief lead late in the game, but baskets by Mike Owens and Dave Weeks gave Evansville its final lead.

In other games, Marquette ran its record to 9-2 with a 71-50 victory over De Paul, Dayton beat Xavier 83-80, St. Louis topped Drake 89-78, Loyola of Chicago crushed Western Michigan 97-76 and Toledo outlasted Bowling Green 73-67 in overtime.

And in a barn-burner in Washington, George Washington beat East Carolina 71-68 in a game that went to four overtimes.

Minnesota's Maniago Blanks Kings Again

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cesare Maniago has the Los Angeles Kings' number and obviously, it's a big, round zero.

Minnesota's Maniago shut out the Kings for the third straight time as Minnesota trounced Los Angeles 6-0 in National Hockey League action Wednesday night.

It was the fourth shutout of the season for Maniago and tied him with Montreal's Gump Worsley for the league lead in that department. Last month, the lanky Minnesota goalie strung three straight shutouts together, two of them over the Kings.

Elsewhere Wednesday night, Oakland absorbed its fourth straight shutout, bowing to St. Louis 4-0, New York battled from behind for a 5-5 tie with Boston and Montreal tied Toronto 1-1.

Maniago kicked out 35 shots as Los Angeles dropped its fifth straight game. The victory moved Minnesota within two points of the second place Kings in the NHL's West Division.

Veteran Parker MacDonald led the North Stars' attack with two goals.

Rookie Frank St. Marseille fired a pair of goals and Glenn Hall recorded his 70th career shutout as the St. Louis Blues blanked Oakland.

The loss extended Oakland's scoreless streak to 13 periods. The Seals have not scored a goal since Dec. 25.

Ken Hodge fired a pair of goals for Boston but the Bruins twice blew two goal leads as the Rangers rallied for their tie.

Bob Nevin and Jim Neilson scored third-period goals that gave New York the deadlock. Four of the Rangers' five goals came on power plays.

Gilles Tremblay scored with less than seven minutes to play giving Montreal its tie with Toronto.

Mike Walton's 20th goal of the season had given the Maple Leafs a second period edge and the goal stood up until Tremblay connected in the final period.

Maravich Continues Score Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Sophomores Pete Maravich of Louisiana State and Calvin Murphy of Niagara continue to dominate the scoring race among the nation's major college basketball players.

According to statistics released today by the National Collegiate Sports Services, Maravich is averaging 44.9 points a game and Murphy is scoring at a 42.5 clip.

Far behnd in third place is Rich Travis of Oklahoma City at 34.4. Houston's Elvin Hayes is fourth at 32.2 and Bob Lanier of St. Bonaventure fifth at 29.4.

Joe Allen of Bradley is the most accurate shooter from the field, hitting on 71.1 per cent of his shots, while the top free throw shooter is Bob Arnzen of Notre Dame with a .941 percentage. Eastern Kentucky's Garfield Smith leads in rebounds with an average of 23.8 a game.

UCLA has the most potent offense, scoring 105.5 points a game, and Tulsa has the toughest defense, permitting just 55 points a game.

Columbus East, McKinley In Top Scholastic Clash

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Columbus East, the team that was supposed to cop the state high shool Class AA basketball championship last year, and Columbus Linden McKinley, the team that did, clash here Friday night in the top scholastic cage conflict of the season.

The form chart figures East to prevail—and by a healthy margin.

For one thing, Coach Bob Hart's Tigers have disposed of seven straight foes by an average of 22 points.

Almost all of the big guns that carried East to a perfect 16-0 regular campaign last year are back again. And if Hart's men need any assistance, there's always that home court advantage.

Revenge also is a factor since Linden upset the Tigers in regional play to spoil Hart's dream of a championship.

East shaded Linden 79-75 in last season's regular game and rang up its fourth City title in five seasons.

But with the chips down, the Panthers carved out a 44-35 upset and went on to route Cleveland East Tech 88 - 56 in the title fray.

Coach Vince Chickerella, faced with a major rebuilding task, has seen the Panthers take seven of their first eight contests.

The game matches East's high-octane attack (72.3 points per game) against Linden's aggressive defense (49.4 per game).

Scholastic sidelights:

Middletown's nifty All - Ohio performer, 6-foot-senior John Fraley, is on a free-throw scoring binge.

Last Friday night, unbeaten Middletown knocked off previously undefeated Hamilton Garfield 91-72 behind Fraley's 34 points. Super John hit 18-of-18 from the charity line and now has connected 37 straight times—a school record.

The 37 is 16 better than fabulous Jerry Lucas notched when Luke was cavorting as a Middie. And the 18 in one game also is a Middletown record.

Unbeaten Cleveland East looms as one of Cuyahoga County's best clubs after edging Cleveland East Tech 84-82. The losing Scarabs are a perennial entry in the state tournament.

Other Cleveland area teams with unblemished marks include Euclid 8-0; Bay Village 6-0; Ashtabula 8-0; Avon 6-0; Streetsboro 7-0 and Kent Roosevelt 8-0.

Avon's Eagles now have won 35 regular season games in a row and have beaten their six foes by margins of 28, 28, 24, 26, 50 and 57 points.

And Massillon's Tigers, better known for their football excellence, are rolling along at an 8-1 pace.

The Associated Press weekly ratings of high school basketball teams will be released next Tuesday in the first poll of the season. The clubs will be rated until tournament action begins.

MAC Cage Games Slated For Video

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Mid - American Conference starts its series of Saturday afternoon basketball telecasts this week when Bowling Green plays host to Marshall.

Championship Twinbill Set For Garden In March

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "I don't know why he signed for it. It's his first mistake. He's got his work cut out for him."

Big Buster Mathis, a 6-foot-3 giant who has trimmed down from 300 pounds to an almost sleek 240, started the war of words with Joe Frazier, the solemn-faced, 5 - 11, 210-pound heavyweight contender.

"That's just big talk," said Frazier later. "He's making a lot of mouth now. We'll see what happens in the ring."

The talking came after it was officially announced Wednesday that the two 23-year-old unbeaten heavyweights would battle for New York and Massachusetts recognition as world heavyweight champion in the first boxing show in the new 20,000-seat Madison Square Garden in the week of March 4. The date will be announced within a week.

It will be part of a championship doubleheader. Middleweight king Emile Griffith of New York will take on Italy's Nino Benvenuti in the third and rubber match between the two.

Nino won the crown from Griffith on a 15-round decision last April 17 and Emile regained it the same way on Sept. 29.

Frazier and Griffith already have the jump on their opponents. They will collect flat guarantees of $175,000 each while Benvenuti will get $80,000 and Mathis $75,000.

The Garden hopes to pay off the $505,000 cut to the four principals with a $750,000 gross on tickets priced from $10 to $100 and the television receipts. The telecast may be either on home television or by closed circuit to theaters and arenas.

The fighters won't share in the television receipts.

The announcements by Eddie Dooley, chairman of the New York Athletic Commission, and by Eddie Urbec, chairman of the Massachusetts Boxing Commission, that they would recognize the heavyweight winner as champion created a stir and some critical remarks at the press conference.

Frazier, with a 19-0 record including 14 knockouts, is ranked first by Ring Magazine and seventh by the World Boxing Association which is supporting an elimination tournament. He had been ranked second by the WBA until he declined to participate in the tourney.

Mathis has a 23-0 record, including 17 kayos, but has not fought anyone of consequence. He is unranked by either Ring or the WBA.

Buster, of Grand Rapids, Mich., however, beat the Philadelphian twice in the amateurs three years ago. He whipped him in the Olympic Trials and then in a practice fight, both three-rounders.

"We agreed to the Garden's request to recognize it as a title fight because they are the best two heavyweights around today," said Dooley. "Rankings don't mean anything. Anyone can make rankings."

Kentucky Wesleyan Still No. 1

By The Associated Press

It was an up-and-down situation for most teams battling for spots in The Associated Press' small college basketball Top Ten, but top-ranked Kentucky Wesleyan and No. 2 Evansville held their positions.

In the latest poll, announced Wednesday, Kentucky Wesleyan, 5-1, got five first-place votes and 104 total points, while Evansville, 8-1, received two first-place ballots and 86 points.

Long Island University, the Top Ten's only unbeaten team, defeated Stonehill, Bridgeport and Boston University last week to run its record to 10-0 and move from fourth to third place.

Fourth place was taken over by San Diego State, 6-2 and fifth-ranked last week, after a victory over Claremont-Mudd.

Indiana State and Southwest Missouri are tied for fifth. Indiana State lost to Weber State and dropped from third, while Southwest Missouri, idle last week, jumped from ninth.

Trinity, Tex., which also took the week off, moved from eighth to seventh as Southwestern Louisiana lost to Weber State and dropped from sixth eighth.

Ninth place is occupied by Winston Salem which dropped from seventh after losing to Kentucky Wesleyan. Newcomer Guilford is 10th, replacing Akron which lost to Buffalo State while Guilford won two of three.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis:

1.	Kentucky Wesleyan (5)	104
2.	Evansville (2)	86
3.	Long Island (1)	73

Tom Butters Named Duke Baseball Coach

DURHAM, N. C. (AP)—Tom Butters, 29, whose professional baseball career was ended by an auto accident while he was en route to spring training with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1955, has been appointed head baseball coach at Duke University.

Duke announced today that he will succeed Jim Bly, who died last fall.

After his injury, Butters became the assistant director of admissions at his alma mater, Ohio Wesleyan University, and headed that school's athletic recruiting program.

Last fall Butters came to Duke as associate for development of the university.

YOUR CAR

NEVER PASS ON A CURVE, OR ENCOURAGE anyone to pass your car. Most drivers don't maintain a stable line around a curve, and drift one way. This makes passing hard, even if the roadway is clear.

SOMEONE HAS MADE A TROUBLE FLAG that extends from the top of the driver's side. The red flourescent flag pops out a a touch and warns cars you have trouble as you cut for the curb. It's reusable.

HIGH SCHOOL DRIVER EDUCATION IS THE most effective tool for reducing traffic wrecks. Over 3½ million teens become new drivers each year.

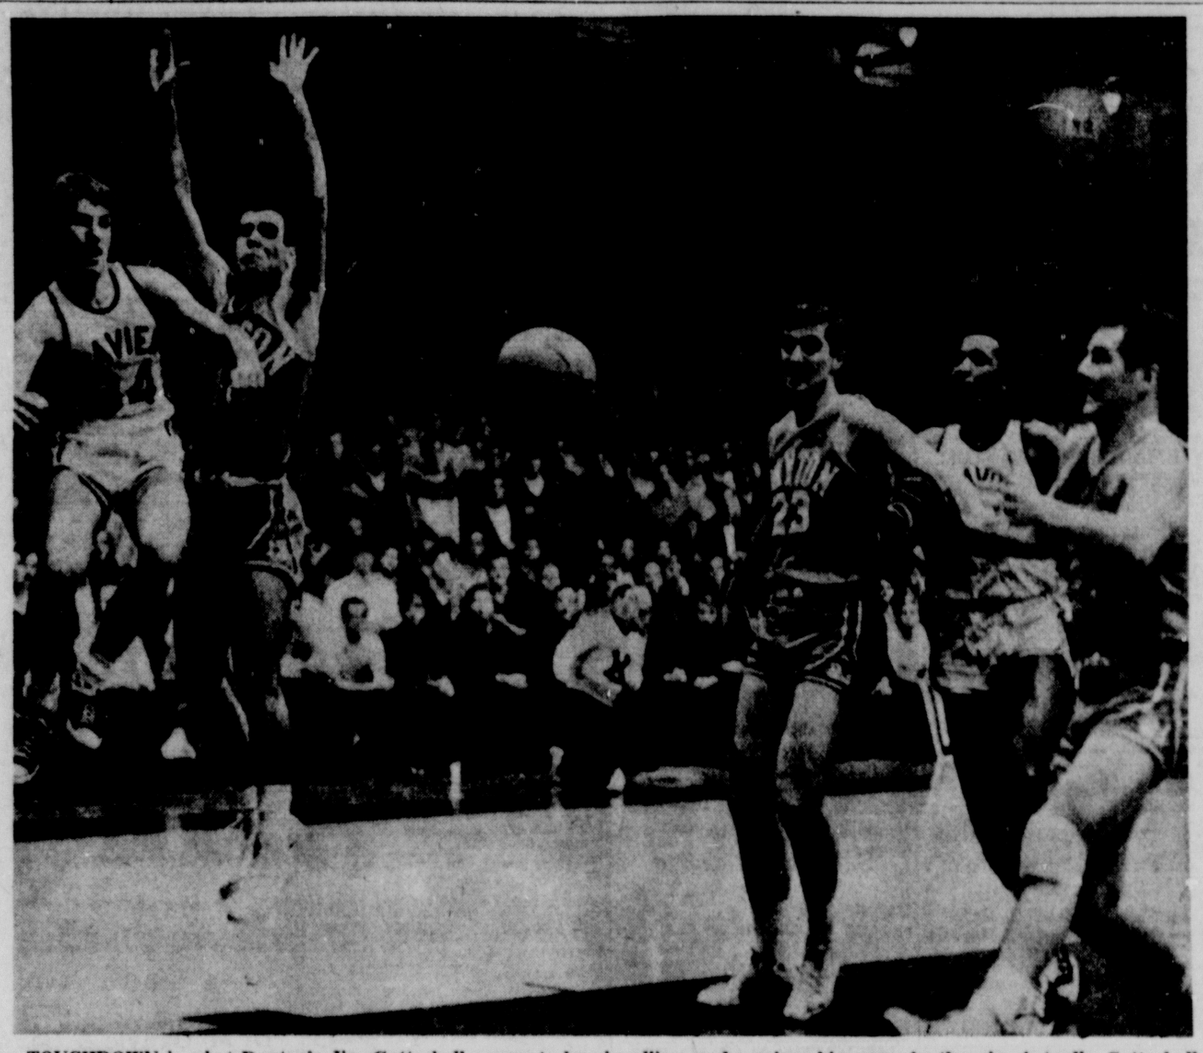
A NEW GAS OPERATED AIRJACK HAS BEEN made for your car. Rubber bellows are expanded by a small can of compressed gas through a valve. Sells for about $50, but works great!

WHAT IS A USED CAR AT M & A MOTORS DODGE? It's a car we've probably taken in on a trade, that has been inspected, repaired and reconconditioned if needed, and test driven. Only then do we offer it for sale at either af our three East Liverpool locations. Need a good used car? See us, quick!

DEATHY DRIVING BLUNDER NO. 33: "Isn't it cozy with 4 in front?"

POLICE ESTIMATE THAT ABOUT ONE IN 1,000 drunk drivers is caught. Safety experts say we need hundreds of thousands more men and police cars to catch these drunks before they cause wrecks.

TODAY MAKE A CONSCIOUS EFFORT to obey all driving and traffic laws, so you'll drive better, safer, and more courteously.



TOUCHDOWN is what Dayton's Jim Gottschall seems to be signalling as he raises his arms in the air. Actually Gottschall has just fouled John Zeides of Xavier, who was trying to get off a shot. Duke Defeats Davidson, Meets UNC

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Duke and North Carolina already have one thing in common—Vanderbilt—and the Blue Devils are now casting covetous glances at the Tarheels' place in the college basketball Top Ten.

Duke, unranked as yet, boosted its season record to 7-1 Wednesday night with a comeback 89-84 victory over Davidson, which, until last week,, was in the Top Ten itself. North Carolina, No. 3, beat Wake Forest 74-62.

Both clubs' lone defeats were suffered at the hands of Vanderbilt, rated fourth. The first meeting between Duke and North Carolina will come Saturday at Chapel Hill, N.C.

The Blue Devils fought back from a 50-43 deficit early in the first half to their victory.

"As long as we continue to scratch and claw as we have all season, said Vic Bubas, Duke coach, "this bunch will make a good showing against anybody."

Davidson Coach Lefty Driesell added, "If Duke continues to shoot like they did tonight, they can beat anyone in the country."

The Blue Devils outrebounded Davidson 55-33 and Mike Lewis and Dave Golden each had 22 points. North Carolina got 23 points from Rusty Clark, 22, from Charlie Scott and 20 from Larry Miller in downing Wake Forest.

Seventh-ranked Utah boosted its record to 11-1, beating American University 84-77. Merv Jackson had 27 points and Walt Simon had 26 for the Redskins. Ninth-ranked St. Bonaventure, with Bob Lanier scoring 33 points, beat Kent State 80-63, the Bonnies' 10th straight triumph.

New Mexico, No. 10, won its 12th straight, beating Air Force 88-60 with Ron Nelson scored 26 points. Calvin Murphy, second leading scorer in the country, poured in 39 points against Buffalo State, leading Niagara to a 94-79 victory.

The nation's top-ranked small-college team, Kentucky Wesleyan, was knocked off by No. 2, Evansville 71-64. The Kentucky club fought back from a seven-point halftime deficit to take a brief lead late in the game, but baskets by Mike Owens and Dave Weeks gave Evansville its final lead.

In other games, Marquette ran its record to 9-2 with a 71-50 victory over De Paul, Dayton beat Xavier 83-80, St. Louis topped Drake 89-78, Loyola of Chicago crushed Western Michigan 97-76 and Toledo outlasted Bowling Green 73-67 in overtime.

And in a barn-burner in Washington, George Washington beat East Carolina 71-68 in a game that went to four overtimes.

Minnesota's Maniago Blanks Kings Again

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cesare Maniago has the Los Angeles Kings' number and obviously, it's a big, round zero.

Minnesota's Maniago shut out the Kings for the third straight time as Minnesota trounced Los Angeles 6-0 in National Hockey League action Wednesday night.

It was the fourth shutout of the season for Maniago and tied him with Montreal's Gump Worsley for the league lead in that department. Last month, the lanky Minnesota goalie strung three straight shutouts together, two of them over the Kings.

Elsewhere Wednesday night, Oakland absorbed its fourth straight shutout, bowing to St. Louis 4-0, New York battled from behind for a 5-5 tie with Boston and Montreal tied Toronto 1-1.

Maniago kicked out 35 shots as Los Angeles dropped its fifth straight game. The victory moved Minnesota within two points of the second place Kings in the NHL's West Division.

Veteran Parker MacDonald led the North Stars' attack with two goals.

Rookie Frank St. Marseille fired a pair of goals and Glenn Hall recorded his 70th career shutout as the St. Louis Blues blanked Oakland.

The loss extended Oakland's scoreless streak to 13 periods The Seals have not scored a goal since Dec. 25.

Ken Hodge fired a pair of goals for Boston but the Bruins twice blew two goal leads as the Rangers rallied for their tie.

Bob Nevin and Jim Neilson scored third-period goals that gave New York the deadlock. Four of the Rangers' five goals came on power plays.

Gilles Tremblay scored with less than seven minutes to play giving Montreal its tie with Toronto.

Mike Walton's 20th goal of the season had given the Maple Leafs a second period edge and the goal stood up until Tremblay connected in the final period.

Maravich Continues Score Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Sophomores Pete Maravich of Louisiana State and Calvin Murphy of Niagara continue to dominate the scoring race among the nation's major college basketball players.

According to statistics released today by the National Collegiate Sports Services, Maravich is averaging 44.9 points a game and Murphy is scoring at a 42.5 clip.

Far behnd in third place is Rich Travis of Oklahoma City at 34.4. Houston's Elvin Hayes is fourth at 32.2 and Bob Lanier of St. Bonaventure fifth at 29.4.

Joe Allen of Bradley is the most accurate shooter from the field, hitting on 71.1 per cent of his shots, while the top free throw shooter is Bob Arnzen of Notre Dame with a .941 percentage. Eastern Kentucky's Garfield Smith leads in rebounds with an average of 23.8 a game.

UCLA has the most potent offense, scoring 105.5 points a game, and Tulsa has the toughest defense, permitting just 55 points a game.

Columbus East, McKinley In Top Scholastic Clash

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Columbus East, the team that was supposed to cop the state high shool Class AA basketball championship last year, and Columbus Linden McKinley, the team that did, clash here Friday night in the top scholastic cage conflict of the season.

The form chart figures East to prevail—and by a healthy margin.

For one thing, Coach Bob Hart's Tigers have disposed of seven straight foes by an average of 22 points.

Almost all of the big guns that carried East to a perfect 16-0 regular campaign last year are back again. And if Hart's men need any assistance, there's always that home court advantage.

Revenge also is a factor since Linden upset the Tigers in regional play to spoil Hart's dream of a championship.

East shaded Linden 79-75 in last season's regular game and rang up its fourth City title in five seasons.

But with the chips down, the Panthers carved out a 44-35 upset and went on to route Cleveland East Tech 88 - 56 in the title fray.

Coach Vince Chickerella, faced with a major rebuilding task, has seen the Panthers take seven of their first eight contests.

The game matches East's high-octane attack (72.3 points per game) against Linden's aggressive defense (49.4 per game).

Scholastic sidelights:

Middletown's nifty All - Ohio performer, 6-foot-senior John Fraley, is on a free-throw scoring binge.

Last Friday night, unbeaten Middletown knocked off previously undefeated Hamilton Garfield 91-72 behind Fraley's 34 points. Super John hit 18-of-18 from the charity line and now has connected 37 straight times—a school record.

The 37 is 16 better than fabulous Jerry Lucas notched when Luke was cavorting as a Middie. And the 18 in one game also is a Middletown record.

Unbeaten Cleveland East looms as one of Cuyahoga County's best clubs after edging Cleveland East Tech 84-82. The losing Scarabs are a perennial entry in the state tournament.

Other Cleveland area teams with unblemished marks include Euclid 8-0; Bay Village 6-0; Ashtabula 8-0; Avon 6-0; Streetsboro 7-0 and Kent Roosevelt 8-0.

Avon's Eagles now have won 35 regular season games in a row and have beaten their six foes by margins of 28, 28, 24, 26, 50 and 57 points.

And Massillon's Tigers, better known for their football excellence, are rolling along at an 8-1 pace.

The Associated Press weekly ratings of high school basketball teams will be released next Tuesday in the first poll of the season. The clubs will be rated until tournament action begins.

MAC Cage Games Slated For Video

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Mid - American Conference starts its series of Saturday afternoon basketball telecasts this week when Bowling Green plays host to Marshall.

Championship Twinbill Set For Garden In March

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "I don't know why he signed for it. It's his first mistake. He's got his work cut out for him."

Big Buster Mathis, a 6-foot-3 giant who has trimmed down from 300 pounds to an almost sleek 240, started the war of words with Joe Frazier, the solemn-faced, 5 - 11, 210-pound heavyweight contender.

"That's just big talk," said Frazier later. "He's making a lot of mouth now. We'll see what happens in the ring."

The talking came after it was officially announced Wednesday that the two 23-year-old unbeaten heavyweights would battle for New York and Massachusetts recognition as world heavyweight champion in the first boxing show in the new 20,000-seat Madison Square Garden in the week of March 4. The date will be announced within a week.

It will be part of a championship doubleheader. Middleweight king Emile Griffith of New York will take on Italy's Nino Benvenuti in the third and rubber match between the two.

Nino won the crown from Griffith on a 15-round decision last April 17 and Emile regained it the same way on Sept. 29.

Frazier and Griffith already have the jump on their opponents. They will collect flat guarantees of $175,000 each while Benvenuti will get $80,000 and Mathis $75,000.

The Garden hopes to pay off the $505,000 cut to the four principals with a $750,000 gross on tickets priced from $10 to $100 and the television receipts. The telecast may be either on home television or by closed circuit to theaters and arenas.

The fighters won't share in the television receipts.

The announcements by Eddie Dooley, chairman of the New York Athletic Commission, and by Eddie Urbec, chairman of the Massachusetts Boxing Commission, that they would recognize the heavyweight winner as champion created a stir and some critical remarks at the press conference.

Frazier, with a 19-0 record including 14 knockouts, is ranked first by Ring Magazine and seventh by the World Boxing Association which is supporting an elimination tournament. He had been ranked second by the WBA until he declined to participate in the tourney.

Mathis has a 23-0 record, including 17 kayos, but has not fought anyone of consequence. He is unranked by either Ring or the WBA.

Buster, of Grand Rapids, Mich., however, beat the Philadelphian twice in the amateurs three years ago. He whipped him in the Olympic Trials and then in a practice fight, both three-rounders.

"We agreed to the Garden's request to recognize it as a title fight because they are the best two heavyweights around today," said Dooley. "Rankings don't mean anything. Anyone can make rankings."

Kentucky Wesleyan Still No. 1

By The Associated Press

It was an up-and-down situation for most teams battling for spots in The Associated Press' small college basketball Top Ten, but top-ranked Kentucky Wesleyan and No. 2 Evansville held their positions.

In the latest poll, announced Wednesday, Kentucky Wesleyan, 5-1, got five first-place votes and 104 total points, while Evansville, 8-1, received two first-place ballots and 86 points.

Long Island University, the Top Ten's only unbeaten team, defeated Stonehill, Bridgeport and Boston University last week to run its record to 10-0 and move from fourth to third place.

Fourth place was taken over by San Diego State, 6-2 and fifth-ranked last week, after a victory over Claremont-Mudd.

Indiana State and Southwest Missouri are tied for fifth. Indiana State lost to Weber State and dropped from third, while Southwest Missouri, idle last week, jumped from ninth.

Trinity, Tex., which also took the week off, moved from eighth to seventh as Southwestern Louisiana lost to Weber State and dropped from sixth eighth.

Ninth place is occupied by Winston Salem which dropped from seventh after losing to Kentucky Wesleyan. Newcomer Guilford is 10th, replacing Akron which lost to Buffalo State while Guilford won two of three.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis:

1.	Kentucky Wesleyan (5)	104
2.	Evansville (2)	86
3.	Long Island (1)	73
4.	San Diego State (1)	51
5.	Indiana State (1)	50
	Southwest Missouri (1)	50
7.	Trinity, Tex.	42
8.	Southwest Lousiana	36

Lonborg Sidelined Until May

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox' hopes of repeating as American League champions have been dealt a blow with the word that pitching ace Jim Lonborg's recovery from knee surgery may keep him sidelined for virtually the entire first month of the 1968 season.

The big right-hander, who was injured in a Dec. 24 skiing accident, was scheduled for release from the hospital today, but club trainer Buddy LeRoux said he wasn't expected to be back in action until several weeks after the April 9 opening game at Detroit.

"From a realistic point of view he won't be ready for the opener," LeRoux said Wednesday. "The doctors all feel that sometime in May would be the date for him to return to action."

That could mean the loss of half a dozen or more starts for the hurler who bulwarked the Red Sox' otherwise undistinguished staff all through the 1967 pennant drive, finishing with a 22-9 record, earning the Cy Young Award as the league's top pitcher, and winning two World Series games.

Lonborg was the only consistently effective pitcher on the staff last season, with other starters moving in and out of the rotation while the team's heavy hitting and good clutch performances carried it to the pennant. The next biggest winners were Jose Santiago, 12-4, and Garry Bell, 13-13 for the year and 12-8 with Boston after being acquired from Cleveland.

Even before Lonborg tore two ligaments in his mishap at Lake Tahoe, Nev., the Red Sox had considered their over-all pitching situation one of the major problems for 1968. The club has already made two trades designed to strengthen mound corps — obtaining Ray Culp from the Chicago Cubs and Dick Ellsworth from the Philadelphia Phillies.

Lonborg underwent a two-hour and 10-minute operation Dec. 27 at Sancta Maria Hospital in nearby Cambridge. He said in his hospital room Wednesday that he felt good, was looking forward to leaving, and knew nothing about LeRoux' comments or the question of whether he'd be ready by the start of the season.

Roger Maris Recovered From Palsy

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Outfielder Roger Maris, almost completely recovered from an attack of Bell's Palsy, has left for Gainesville, Fla., on a new offseason job.

Maris, who was credited with a strong supporting role as the St. Louis Cardinals walked away with the National League pennant and the World Series title last fall, disclosed Dec. 15 that he was suffering from Bell's Palsy.

The ailment, often caused by inflammation from a cold, prevents facial nerves and muscles from functioning normally and sometimes affects the eyes.

Maris was affected temporarily on the right side of his face, but his family reports he is almost completely recovered and that his eyesight is unaffected.

Grid Cards Dissension Reported

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Head Coach Charley Winner says the St. Louis Cardinals have one of the finest coaching staffs in the National Football League, but the St. Louis Globe-Democrat says the players don't agree.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch said eight players were fined an estimated total of $3,200 for missing a bed check when the team was in New York for the final game of the season against the Giants. The Giants won the game 37-14.

The Globe-Democrat then charged in its editions today that the players had missed the bedcheck on purpose. The newspaper said the Cardinals are in the midst of widespread player dissatisfaction with the coaches, the management and fellow players.

But Winner refused to comment on the stories. He was in Mobile, Ala. scouting the Senior Bowl game.

"I mean anything that happens on our ball club is a closed affair between the coaches and players and there's nothing to say about it," Winner remarked. He then praised his coaching staff.

But the touchiest problem on the club, which finished with a 6-7-1 record, according to the Globe-Democrat, is the unhappiness of Negro athletes with an assistant coach and with fellow players. Every Negro on the club attended a three-hour meeting at which their complaints were aired, the newspaper said.

Later in the week the players gave Winner a two-page letter outlining their grievances and demands. The Globe-Democrat said many of the demands "were not unlike those being fought for by civil rights groups around the country."

Sugar Ray In Boxing Hall Of Fame

NEW YORK (AP) — Fifteen years after his first retirement and two years after his last one, Sugar Ray Robinson has made boxing's Hall of Fame.

Five times the middleweight champion and once the welterweight title holder, Robinson was elected to the Hall along with two fighters of another era, heavyweight Joe Jeannette and lightweight Barney "Young" Aaron.

The potato chip is said to have first made its appearance in 1853 at Moon Lake House, Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of our dear husband and father, Carmen J. Laneve who passed away one year ago today. The moon and stars are shining upon a lonely grave, Where sleeps our husband and father. We loved but could not save. We often sit and think of you, And speak of how you died. To think you could not say goodbye. Before you closed your eyes. For all of us you did your best. May God grant you eternal rest.
From his loving Wife, Daughters, Sons and Grandchildren.

In loving memory of our father Carl L. Landis who left us 8 years ago.
Although it was hard to say goodbye. To one we loved so well.
There's deep sorrow in our hearts
More than words can tell
Still we find some comfort now
In knowing that he will be
Forever close in loving thoughts
And cherished memory.
Audrey, Bonnie, Carl, Jim and Joe

3 CARD OF THANKS

WE wish to express our sincere thanks to Rev. Hill, all our many friends and neighbors for their kindness to us and those who offered cars and the beautiful flowers in the death of my dear wife, Ada Ross.

Lonborg Sidelined Until May

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox' hopes of repeating as American League champions have been dealt a blow with the word that pitching ace Jim Lonborg's recovery from knee surgery may keep him sidelined for virtually the entire first month of the 1968 season.

The big right-hander, who was injured in a Dec. 24 skiing accident, was scheduled for release from the hospital today, but club trainer Buddy LeRoux said he wasn't expected to be back in action until several weeks after the April 9 opening game at Detroit.

"From a realistic point of view he won't be ready for the opener," LeRoux said Wednesday. "The doctors all feel that sometime in May would be the date for him to return to action."

That could mean the loss of half a dozen or more starts for the hurler who bulwarked the Red Sox' otherwise undistinguished staff all through the 1967 pennant drive, finishing with a 22-9 record, earning the Cy Young Award as the league's top pitcher, and winning two World Series games.

Lonborg was the only consistently effective pitcher on the staff last season, with other starters moving in and out of the rotation while the team's heavy hitting and good clutch performances carried it to the pennant. The next biggest winners were Jose Santiago, 12-4, and Garry Bell, 13-13 for the year and 12-8 with Boston after being acquired from Cleveland.

Even before Lonborg tore two ligaments in his mishap at Lake Tahoe, Nev., the Red Sox had considered their over-all pitching situation one of the major problems for 1968. The club has already made two trades designed to strengthen mound corps — obtaining Ray Culp from the Chicago Cubs and Dick Ellsworth from the Philadelphia Phillies.

Lonborg underwent a two-hour and 10-minute operation Dec. 27 at Sancta Maria Hospital in nearby Cambridge. He said in his hospital room Wednesday that he felt good, was looking forward to leaving, and knew nothing about LeRoux' comments or the question of whether he'd be ready by the start of the season.

Roger Maris Recovered From Palsy

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Outfielder Roger Maris, almost completely recovered from an attack of Bell's Palsy, has left for Gainesville, Fla., on a new offseason job.

Maris, who was credited with a strong supporting role as the St. Louis Cardinals walked away with the National League pennant and the World Series title last fall, disclosed Dec. 15 that he was suffering from Bell's Palsy.

The ailment, often caused by inflammation from a cold, prevents facial nerves and muscles from functioning normally and sometimes affects the eyes.

Maris was affected temporarily on the right side of his face, but his family reports he is almost completely recovered and that his eyesight is unaffected.

Grid Cards Dission Reported

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Head Coach Charley Winner says the St. Louis Cardinals have one of the finest coaching staffs in the National Football League, but the St. Louis Globe-Democrat says the players don't agree.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch said eight players were fined an estimated total of $3,200 for missing a bed check when the team was in New York for the final game of the season against the Giants. The Giants won the game 37-14.

The Globe-Democrat then charged in its editions today that the players had missed the bedcheck on purpose. The newspaper said the Cardinals are in the midst of widespread player dissatisfaction with the coaches, the management and fellow players.

But Winner refused to comment on the stories. He was in Mobile, Ala. scouting the Senior Bowl game.

"I mean anything that happens on our ball club is a closed affair between the coaches and players and there's nothing to say about it," Winner remarked. He then praised his coaching staff.

But the touchiest problem on the club, which finished with a 6-7-1 record, according to the Globe-Democrat, is the unhappiness of Negro athletes with an assistant coach and with fellow players. Every Negro on the club attended a three-hour meeting at which their complaints were aired, the newspaper said.

Later in the week the players gave Winner a two-page letter outlining their grievances and demands. The Globe-Democrat said many of the demands "were not unlike those being fought for by civil rights groups around the country."

Sugar Ray In Boxing Hall Of Fame

NEW YORK (AP) — Fifteen years after his first retirement and two years after his last one, Sugar Ray Robinson has made boxing's Hall of Fame.

Five times the middleweight champion and once the welterweight title holder, Robinson was elected to the Hall along with two fighters of another era, heavyweight Joe Jeannette and lightweight Barney "Young" Aaron.

The potato chip is said to have first made its appearance in 1853 at Moon Lake House, Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of our dear husband and father, Carmen J. Laneve who passed away one year ago today. The moon and stars are shining upon a lonely grave. Where sleeps our husband and father, We loved but could not save. We often sit and think of you, And speak of how you died. To think you could not say goodbye, Before you closed your eyes. For all of us you did your best, May God grant you eternal rest. From his loving Wife, Daughters, Sons and Grandchildren.

In loving memory of our father Carl L. Landis who left us 8 years ago.
Although it was hard to say goodbye. To one we loved so well.
There's deep sorrow in our hearts
More than words can tell
Still we find some comfort now
In knowing that he will be
Forever close in loving thoughts
And cherished memory.
Audrey, Bonnie, Carl, Jim and Joe

Junior Editors Quiz on SOAP

QUESTION: What goes into soap?

ANSWER: Several million tiny sweat glands open through our skins. As the sweat evaporates, it cools the skin, regulating body heat. But dirt clogs up the sweat pores, making us uncomfortable. A good soaping breaks the dirt into minute pieces which can be flushed away, leaving us feeling fine again. By itself, water can't penetrate a dirty surface because its surface molecules pull together and try not to get separated. Soap breaks this "surface tension" so the water can get at the dirt. It also breaks grease and oil into little droplets which can be rinsed away. To make soap, huge quantities of fats, oils and soda are piped into kettles rising up to 60 feet high. Steam is used to heat this. Then tons of salt go in and the mixture separates. The top part or soap curd is poured off and mixed with other materials to make soap. Besides using plenty of soap for washing, why not try a bit of soap sculpture? Get a large bar of soft white soap, draw a design on both sides and carve it out. Scrape out small details with an orange stick; smooth with your fingers.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, January 4, the fourth day of 1968. There are 362 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1790, George Washington delivered the first annual presidential message.

On this date:

In 1642, the English mathematician who discovered the law of gravity, Sir Isaac Newton, was born.

In 1896, Utah was admitted to the Union as the 45th state.

In 1921, the Rockefeller Foundation announced that yellow fever had been wiped out in Ecuador.

In 1936, the Nazis ordered military training for the children of Germany.

In 1946, Gen. Douglas MacArthur invited 30 prominent American educators to help set up a democratic school system in occupied Japan.

In 1948, Britain granted independence to Burma.

Ten years ago—British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan proposed that the Western powers seek a pact of nonaggression with the Soviet Union.

Five years ago — The United Nations said it was discontinuing news broadcasts to Hungary. They had been started after the unsuccessful Hungarian revolt seven years earlier.

One year ago—Eight art masterpieces worth $7 million were returned to a London art gallery four days after they had been stolen.
